Bill No. SB 1184

317758

15 459.0152 Specialties.--An osteopathic physician licensed
16 under this chapter may not hold himself or herself out as a 17 board-certified specialist unless the osteopathic physician has 18 successfully completed the requirements for certification by the 19 American Osteopathic Association or the Accreditation Council on 20 Graduate Medical Education and is certified as a specialist by a 21 certifying agency approved by the board. An osteopathic
22 physician licensed under this chapter who completes his or her
23 board certification after January 1, 2009, may not hold himself
24 or herself out as a board-certified emergency osteopathic
25 physician unless the osteopathic physician has received formal 26 recognition as a specialist from a recognized agency approved by 27 the board and has completed a residency training program in 28 emergency medicine which is approved by the American Osteopathic 29 Association or the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical
