

	CHAMBER ACTION
	Senate . House
	Comm: RCS
	4/22/2008 .
	•
	•
1	The Committee on Education Pre-K - 12 Appropriations (Wise)
2	recommended the following amendment :
3
4	Senate Amendment (with title amendment)
5	Delete everything after the enacting clause
6	and insert:
7	Section 1. Subsection (5) of section 1006.06, Florida
8	Statutes, is amended to read:
9	1006.06 School food service programs
10	(5)(a) Each district school board shall implement school
11	breakfast programs in all elementary schools that make breakfast
12	meals available to all students in kindergarten through grade 6
13	in each district school, unless the elementary school. By the
14	beginning of the 2010-2011 school year, the school breakfast
15	programs shall make breakfast meals available to all students in
16	each elementary, middle, and high school. Each school shall, to
17	the maximum extent practicable, make breakfast meals available to
1	Page 1 of 6

4/22/2008 12:51:00 PM

19need not be limited to, "Grab 'n' Go" breakfast as described in20publications of the Food and Nutrition Service of the United21States Department of Agriculture for the federal School Breakfast22Program goes only through grade 5. in which case the requirement23shall apply only through grade 5. Each district school board24shall implement breakfast programs in all elementary schools in25which students are eligible for free and reduced price lunch26meals, to the extent specifically funded in the General27Appropriations Act.28(b) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each school29district must annually set prices for breakfast meals at rates31that, combined with federal reimbursements, are sufficient to32defray costs of school breakfast programs without requiring33allocations from the district's operating funds, except if the34c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide35universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each36elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the372010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve38or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony39concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings,40which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to41all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which4280 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or44 <td< th=""><th>18</th><th>students at an alternative site location, which may include, but</th></td<>	18	students at an alternative site location, which may include, but
21States Department of Agriculture for the federal School Breakfast22Program gees only through grade 5, in which case the requirement23shall apply only through grade 5. Each district school board24shall implement breakfast programs in all elementary schools in25which students are eligible for free and reduced price lunch26meals, to the extent specifically funded in the General27Appropriations Act.28(b) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each school29district must annually set prices for breakfast meals at rates30that, combined with federal reimbursements, are sufficient to31defray costs of school breakfast programs without requiring32allocations from the district's operating funds, except if the33district school board approves lower rates.34(c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide35universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each36elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the31concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings,34which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to34all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which36percent or more of the students are eligible for free or37reduced-price meals.38(d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	19	need not be limited to, "Grab 'n' Go" breakfast as described in
Programges only through grade 5, in which case the requirementshall apply only through grade 5. Each district school boardshall implement breakfast programs in all elementary schools inwhich students are eligible for free and reduced price lunchmeals, to the extent specifically funded in the GeneralAppropriations Act.(b) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each schooldistrict must annually set prices for breakfast meals at ratesthat, combined with federal reimbursements, are sufficient todefray costs of school breakfast programs without requiringallocations from the district's operating funds, except if thedistrict school board approves lower rates.(c) Each district school board is encouraged to provideuniversal-free school breakfast meals to all students in eachelementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approveor disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimonyconcerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings,which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available toall students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free orreduced-price meals.(d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	20	publications of the Food and Nutrition Service of the United
3 shall apply only through grade 5. Each district school board shall implement breakfast programs in all elementary schools in which students are eligible for free and reduced price lunch meals, to the extent specifically funded in the General Appropriations Act. (b) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each school district must annually set prices for breakfast meals at rates that, combined with federal reimbursements, are sufficient to defray costs of school breakfast programs without requiring allocations from the district's operating funds, except if the district school board approves lower rates. (c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or reduced-price meals. (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	21	States Department of Agriculture for the federal School Breakfast
<pre>shall implement breakfast programs in all elementary schools in which students are eligible for free and reduced price lunch meals, to the extent specifically funded in the Conoral Appropriations Act. (b) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each school district must annually set prices for breakfast meals at rates that, combined with federal reimbursements, are sufficient to defray costs of school breakfast programs without requiring allocations from the district's operating funds, except if the district school board approves lower rates. (c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or reduced-price meals. (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each</pre>	22	Program goes only through grade 5, in which case the requirement which students are eligible for free and reduced price lunch meals, to the extent specifically funded in the General Appropriations Act. (b) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each school district must annually set prices for breakfast meals at rates that, combined with federal reimbursements, are sufficient to defray costs of school breakfast programs without requiring allocations from the district's operating funds, except if the district school board approves lower rates. (c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or reduced-price meals. (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	23	shall apply only through grade 5. Each district school board
<pre>26 meals, to the extent specifically funded in the General 27 Appropriations Act. 28 (b) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each school 29 district must annually set prices for breakfast meals at rates 30 that, combined with federal reimbursements, are sufficient to 31 defray costs of school breakfast programs without requiring 32 allocations from the district's operating funds, except if the 33 district school board approves lower rates. 34 (c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide 35 universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each 36 elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the 37 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve 38 or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony 39 concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, 40 which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to 41 all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 42 60 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or 43 reduced-price meals. 44 (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each </pre>	24	shall implement breakfast programs in all elementary schools in
Appropriations Act. (b) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each school district must annually set prices for breakfast meals at rates that, combined with federal reimbursements, are sufficient to defray costs of school breakfast programs without requiring allocations from the district's operating funds, except if the district school board approves lower rates. (c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or reduced-price meals. (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	25	which students are eligible for free and reduced price lunch
 (b) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each school district must annually set prices for breakfast meals at rates that, combined with federal reimbursements, are sufficient to defray costs of school breakfast programs without requiring allocations from the district's operating funds, except if the district school board approves lower rates. (c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or reduced-price meals. (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each 	26	meals, to the extent specifically funded in the General district must annually set prices for breakfast meals at rates that, combined with federal reimbursements, are sufficient to defray costs of school breakfast programs without requiring allocations from the district's operating funds, except if the district school board approves lower rates. (c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or reduced-price meals.	27	Appropriations Act.
that, combined with federal reimbursements, are sufficient to defray costs of school breakfast programs without requiring allocations from the district's operating funds, except if the district school board approves lower rates. (c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or reduced-price meals.	28	(b) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each school defray costs of school breakfast programs without requiring allocations from the district's operating funds, except if the district school board approves lower rates. (c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or reduced-price meals. (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	29	district must annually set prices for breakfast meals at rates
32 allocations from the district's operating funds, except if the 33 district school board approves lower rates. 34 (c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide 35 universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each 36 elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the 37 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve 38 or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony 39 concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, 40 which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to 41 all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 42 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or 43 reduced-price meals. 44 (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	30	that, combined with federal reimbursements, are sufficient to district school board approves lower rates. (c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or 14 (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	31	defray costs of school breakfast programs without requiring
34 (c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide 35 universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each 36 elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the 37 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve 38 or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony 39 concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, 40 which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to 41 all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 42 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or 43 reduced-price meals. 44 (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	32	allocations from the district's operating funds, except if the
35 universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or reduced-price meals. 40 (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	33	district school board approves lower rates.
36 elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the 37 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve 38 or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony 39 concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, 40 which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to 41 all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 42 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or 43 reduced-price meals. 44 (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	34	(c) Each district school board is encouraged to provide
37 2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve 38 or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony 39 concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, 40 which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to 41 all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 42 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or 43 reduced-price meals. 44 (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	35	universal-free school breakfast meals to all students in each
38 or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony 39 concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings, 40 which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to 41 all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 42 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or 43 reduced-price meals. 44 (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	36	elementary, middle, and high school. By the beginning of the
39 concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings , 40 which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to 41 all students in each elementary , middle, and high school in which 42 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or 43 reduced-price meals . 44 (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	37	2010-2011 school year, each district school board shall approve
40 which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to 41 all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 42 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or 43 reduced-price meals. 44 (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	38	or disapprove a policy, after receiving public testimony
 41 all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which 42 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or 43 reduced-price meals. 44 (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each 	39	concerning the proposed policy at two or more regular meetings,
42 42 80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or 43 reduced-price meals. 44 (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	40	which makes universal-free school breakfast meals available to
43 reduced-price meals. 44 (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	41	all students in each elementary, middle, and high school in which
44 (d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each	42	80 percent or more of the students are eligible for free or
	43	reduced-price meals.
45 elementary, middle, and high school shall make a "Grab 'n' Go"	44	(d) Beginning with the 2009-2010 school year, each
	45	elementary, middle, and high school shall make a "Grab 'n' Go"
46 breakfast meal available if a student arrives at school on the	46	breakfast meal available if a student arrives at school on the school bus less than 15 minutes before the first bell rings and 47 shall allow the student at least 15 minutes to eat the breakfast. 48 49 (e) Each school district shall annually provide to all students in each elementary, middle, and high school information 50 51 prepared by the district's food service administration regarding 52 its school breakfast programs. The information shall be communicated through school announcements and written notice sent 53 54 to all parents. 55 (f) A district school board may operate a breakfast program 55 (1) A district school board may operate a breaklast program 56 providing for food preparation at the school site or in central 57 locations with distribution to designated satellite schools or 58 any combination thereof.

602-08211-08

59 (g) (b) The commissioner shall make every reasonable effort 60 to ensure that any school designated a "severe need school" 61 receives the highest rate of reimbursement to which it is 62 entitled under pursuant to 42 U.S.C. s. 1773 for each free and 63 reduced price breakfast meal served.

(h) (c) The department shall annually allocate among the school districts funds provided from the calculate and distribute a school district breakfast supplement for each school year by multiplying the state breakfast rate as specified in the General Appropriations Act based on each district's total by the number of free and reduced-price reduced price breakfast meals served.

70 (d) The Legislature shall provide sufficient funds in the 71 General Appropriations Act to reimburse participating school 72 districts for the difference between the average federal 73 reimbursement for free and reduced price breakfasts and the 74 average statewide cost for breakfasts.

75 Section 2. (1) The Office of Program Policy Analysis and 76 Government Accountability, by January 15, 2009, shall submit a

77 report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Speaker 78 of the House of Representatives, the members of the State Board 79 of Education, and the Commissioner of Education on school district food service programs. The report shall: 80 81 (a) Estimate the district-by-district cost if each school 82 district implements a universal-free school breakfast program in all elementary, middle, and high schools. The estimate shall 83 consider the marginal costs per breakfast meal, anticipated 84 85 increases in student participation rates, expected reductions in 86 the marginal costs per breakfast meal which result from increased 87 economies of scale, offsetting federal reimbursements, impact on 88 the marginal costs per breakfast meal of limiting participation 89 in a universal-free school breakfast program to schools having various percentages of students eligible for free or reduced-90 91 price meals, and impact on student participation rates and marginal costs per breakfast meal of alternatives to serving 92 meals in school cafeterias. The estimate shall also consider the 93 experiences of specific Florida schools and school districts 94 implementing a universal-free school breakfast program. 95 (b) 96 Determine the extent to which school district food 97 service programs are fiscally self-sufficient or require financial support from other district operating funds. 98 99 (c) Examine for at least the previous 5 years the prices 100 that school food service programs charged for meals, the frequency of price-level increases, and the relationship between 101 102 increases in the costs per meal and price-level increases. (d) Identify best practices for the efficient and effective 103 104 operation of school district food service programs, which shall include strategies for a school district to reduce the costs of 105 its food service programs without sacrificing the nutritional 106

Page 4 of 6

4/22/2008 12:51:00 PM

602-08211-08

107 value of meals, including, but not limited to, the use of 108 alternatives to the daily counting of meals at the point of 109 service which are authorized under 7 C.F.R. s. 210.7(c)(2). (e) Evaluate the methodology and forms used for school 110 111 district food service programs to report their revenues and 112 expenditures to the Department of Education. The evaluation shall 113 assess whether the forms require food service programs to accurately report their total operating costs, including, but not 114 limited to, food, labor, equipment, utilities, janitorial 115 116 services, overhead, and indirect costs; whether the calculations 117 submitted on the forms accurately report the average costs per 118 meal; and whether information obtained from the forms as 119 submitted to the department allows an equitable district-by-120 district comparison of the average costs per meal. 121 (f) Assess the methodology used to allocate funds provided 122 in the General Appropriations Act for school district food 123 service programs and the extent to which the allocation 124 methodology creates incentives for the fiscal efficiency of the 125 food service programs. (g) Evaluate the organizational structure of the state for, 126 127 and the state implementation and programmatic management of, 128 federal programs administered by the Food and Nutrition Service 129 of the United States Department of Agriculture, including, but not limited to, the National School Lunch Program, the federal 130 School Breakfast Program, and the federal Summer Food Service 131 132 Program. (2) The Office of Program Policy Analysis and Government 133 134 Accountability shall consult with staff of the education 135 committees of the Senate and House of Representatives, the Department of Education, the Department of Agriculture and 136

Page 5 of 6

602-08211-08

137	Consumer Services, and the Auditor General concerning the
138	research design for the report.
139	Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2008.
140
141	======================================
142	And the title is amended as follows:
143	Delete everything before the enacting clause
144	and insert:
145	A bill to be entitled
146	An act relating to school food service programs; amending
147	s. 1006.06, F.S.; requiring school breakfast programs in
148	middle and high schools; providing procedures for school
149	breakfast programs; specifying requirements for setting
150	prices of breakfast meals; requiring district school
151	boards to consider policies for the provision of
152	universal-free school breakfast meals in certain schools;
153	requiring information to be communicated to students and
154	parents; clarifying the allocation of funds for school
155	breakfast programs; directing the Office of Program Policy
156	Analysis and Government Accountability to submit a report
157	on school district food service programs; providing an
158	effective date.

Page 6 of 6