5 and insert:

6 the subject of the sworn motion, set apart those nonmarital
7 assets and liabilities, and provide for a partial distribution of 8 those marital assets and liabilities. An interim order may be 9 entered at any time after the date the dissolution of marriage is 10 filed and served and before the final distribution of marital and 11 nonmarital assets and marital and nonmarital liabilities.

12 (a) Such an interim order shall be entered only upon good
13 cause shown and upon sworn motion establishing specific factual
14 basis for the motion. The motion may be filed by either party and 15 shall demonstrate good cause why the matter should not be 16 deferred until the final hearing.

17 (b) The court shall specifically take into account and give 18 appropriate credit for any partial distribution of marital assets 19 or liabilities in its final allocation of marital assets or 20 liabilities. Further, the court shall make specific findings in 21 any interim order under this section that any partial 22 distribution will not cause inequity or prejudice to either party
23 as to either party's claims for support or attorney's fees.
