7 (17) After the United States Congress appropriates at 8 least $340 million for the commuter rail service in what is 9 commonly identified as the Central Florida Rail Corridor, the 10 department is authorized to purchase the required right-of-way, 11 improvements, and appurtenances of the A-Line rail corridor from 12 CSX Transportation, Inc., for a maximum purchase price of $450
13 million for the primary purpose of implementing such commuter 14 rail service, and consisting of an approximately
