6 and insert:

7 (25) Conduct a search of the Department of Law
8 Enforcement's sexual offender database for each prospective
9 resident before admission or immediately after admission. A 10 facility must maintain verification that each resident has been 11 screened within the previous year. The information obtained may 12 be used by the facility to assess the needs of the resident and 13 to provide adequate and appropriate health care and protective 14 and support services in accordance with this part. The 15 information obtained may be disclosed to other residents. The 16 facility does not have to rescreen a resident who is away from a 17 facility for no more than 45 days.
