1 A bill to be entitled

2 An act relating to textbook affordability; creating s.
3 1004.09, F.S.; prohibiting certain actions of community
4 college or state university employees that relate to 5 student purchase of required textbooks; authorizing
6 receipt of certain instructional materials, compensation,
7 and training; requiring student notification of required
8 textbooks; requiring adoption of specified policies and 9 practices to minimize the cost of textbooks; providing an 10 effective date.

11
12 WHEREAS, textbooks are an essential part of a comprehensive 13 and high-quality postsecondary education, and

14 WHEREAS, the availability and affordability of textbooks
15 directly impact the quality and affordability of postsecondary 16 education, and

17 WHEREAS, the United States Government Accountability Office
18 recently reported that in the last two decades college textbook 19 prices have increased at twice the rate of inflation, and

20 WHEREAS, the United States Government Accountability Office
21 reported that, while many factors affect textbook pricing, the 22 increasing costs associated with developing instructional
23 supplements to accompany textbooks best explain price increases
24 in recent years, and

25 WHEREAS, the United States Government Accountability Office
26 reported that college textbook prices in the United States may 27 exceed prices in other countries because prices reflect market
28 conditions found in each country, such as the willingness and 29 ability of students to purchase the textbook, and

30 WHEREAS, the cost of textbooks is one component considered 31 in making federal and state-funded financial aid awards, and, as 32 such, escalating textbook prices can impact federal and state 33 spending, and

34 WHEREAS, state universities and community colleges should 35 consider the least costly practices in assigning textbooks when 36 such practices are educationally sound, NOW, THEREFORE,

37
38 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

39
40 Section 1. Section 1004.09, Florida Statutes, is created to 41 read:

42 1004.09 Textbook affordability.--

43 (1) No employee of a community college or state university
44 may demand or receive any payment, loan, subscription, advance, 45 deposit of money, service, or anything of value, present or 46 promised, in exchange for requiring students to purchase a 47 specific textbook for coursework or instruction.

48 (2) An employee may receive:

49 (a) Sample copies, instructor copies, or instructional
50 materials.

51 (b) Royalties or other compensation from sales of textbooks
52 that include the instructor's own writing or work.

53 (c) Honoraria for academic peer review of course materials.

54 (d) Fees associated with activities such as reviewing,
55 critiquing, or preparing support materials for textbooks pursuant 56 to guidelines adopted by the State Board of Education or the 57 Board of Governors.

58 (e) Training in the use of course materials and learning

59 technologies.

60 (3) Community colleges and state universities shall post on 61 their websites, as early as is feasible, but not less than 30
62 days prior to the first day of class for each term, a list of 63 each textbook required for each course offered at the institution
64 during the upcoming term. The posted list must include the 65 International Standard Book Number (ISBN) for each required
66 textbook or other identifying information, which must include, at 67 a minimum, all of the following: the title, all authors listed, 68 publishers, edition number, copyright date, published date, and 69 other relevant information necessary to identify the specific 70 textbook or textbooks required for each course. The State Board 71 of Education and the Board of Governors shall include in the 72 policies, procedures, and guidelines adopted under subsection (4)
73 certain limited exceptions to this notification requirement for 74 classes added after the notification deadline.

75 (4) By March 1, 2009, the State Board of Education and the 76 Board of Governors each shall adopt policies, procedures, and 77 guidelines for implementation by community colleges and state
78 universities, respectively, that further efforts to minimize the 79 cost of textbooks for students attending such institutions while 80 maintaining the quality of education and academic freedom. The 81 policies, procedures, and guidelines shall provide for the 82 following:

83 (a) That textbook adoptions are made with sufficient lead
84 time to bookstores so as to confirm availability of the requested 85 materials and, where possible, ensure maximum availability of 86 used books.

87 (b) That, in the textbook adoption process, the intent to

88 use all items ordered, particularly each individual item sold as 89 part of a bundled package, is confirmed by the course instructor
90 or the academic department offering the course before the 91 adoption is finalized.

92 (c) That a course instructor or the academic department
93 offering the course determines, before a textbook is adopted, the 94 extent to which a new edition differs significantly and 95 substantively from earlier versions and the value of changing to 96 a new edition.

97 (d) That the establishment of policies shall address the 98 availability of required textbooks to students otherwise unable 99 to afford the cost.

100 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2008.
