5 and insert:

6 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public
7 necessity to make confidential and exempt from disclosure
8 personal identifying information contained in records submitted 9 to an agency, as defined in chapter 119, Florida Statutes, by an 10 agency employee which documents an act of domestic violence or 11 sexual violence and which is submitted in order to obtain leave
12 under s. 741.313, Florida Statutes. Such information, if publicly 13 available, could expose the victim of domestic violence or sexual 14 violence to public humiliation and shame and could inhibit that 15 victim from availing himself or herself of the relief provided
16 under s. 741.313, Florida Statutes. In addition, the Legislature 17 finds that it is a public necessity to make confidential and
