7 his or her base period to qualify for benefits, the Agency for 8 Workforce Innovation must designate the alternative base period
 9 to be his or her base period. As used in this subsection, the 10 term "alternative base period" means the last four completed 11 calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of an 12 individual's benefit year. Wages used in a base period to 13 establish a monetarily eligible benefit year may not be applied
 14 to establish monetary eligibility in any succeeding benefit year.
 15 If information regarding wages for the calendar quarter or 16 quarters immediately preceding the benefit year has not been 17 entered into the Agency for Workforce Innovation's mainframe

18 database from the regular quarterly reports of wage information
19 or is otherwise unavailable, the Agency for Workforce Innovation 20 shall request such information from the employer by mail. An 21 employer must provide the requested wage information within 10
22 days after the Agency for Workforce Innovation mails the request
23 to the employer. An employer that fails to provide the requested 24 wage information within the required time is subject to the 25 penalty for delinquent reports in s. 443.141(1)(b).

26 (b) For monetary determinations based upon the alternative 27 base period, if the Agency for Workforce Innovation is unable to 28 access the wage information through its mainframe database, the 29 Agency for Workforce Innovation may base
