

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. HOUSE PRINCIPLES ANALYSIS:

This bill does not appear to implicate any of the House Principles.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Section 121.71, F.S., authorizes the uniform retirement contribution rates by member class and subclass for the defined benefit and optional retirement programs for the Florida Retirement System (FRS).

Section 121.031, F.S., requires the administrator of the System [the Department of Management Services] to provide for an annual actuarial study of the System and to report the results to the legislature by December 31 prior to the next legislative session. The legislature generally adopts revised rates during that legislative session. Participating employers in the Florida Retirement System must make monthly contributions to fund the System based upon the rates as established in s. 121.71, F.S.

This bill amends s. 121.71, F.S., to revise the rates that are scheduled to become effective July 1, 2008; thereby, continuing the current year rates that became effective July 1, 2007. In addition, the bill establishes new rates to become effective on July 1, 2009. The rates proposed for July 1, 2009, are based on the results of blending the defined contribution and defined benefit plans as calculated by the actuary in the blended-rates study dated December 2007.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

The mandates provision appears to apply because this bill requires counties and cities to spend funds or take an action requiring the expenditure of funds; however, an exception applies because the bill provides a declaration of important state interest and it requires all similarly situated persons to comply.

2. Other:

Article X, Section 14, State Constitution, and Part VII of ch. 112, F.S., separately require all public sector pension plans to prefund all promised pension benefits in a sound actuarial manner to avoid the intergenerational transfer of unfunded risk.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

None.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

None.

D. STATEMENT OF THE SPONSOR

Not applicable.

IV. AMENDMENTS/COUNCIL SUBSTITUTE CHANGES
