Senate Amendment

Delete line(s) 101-116

and insert:

7 (5) A contract of insurance upon a person, other than a 8 policy of group life insurance or group or blanket accident, 9 health, or disability insurance, may not be effectuated unless,
10 on or before the time of entering into such contract, the person 11 insured, having legal capacity to contract, applies for or 12 consents in writing to the contract and its terms, except that 13 any person having an insurable interest in the life of a minor 14 younger than 15 years of age or any person upon whom a minor 15 younger than 15 years of age is dependent for support and 16 maintenance may effectuate a policy of insurance on the minor.
