

Amendment No.

CHAMBER ACTION

Senate

House

1 Representative Seiler and Needelman offered the following:

2
3 Amendment (with title amendment)

4 Between lines 487 and 488, insert:

5 Section 10. Paragraph (i) of subsection (5) of section
6 985.0301, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

7 985.0301 Jurisdiction.--

8 (5)

9 (i) The court retains ~~may retain~~ jurisdiction over a child
10 and the child's parent or legal guardian whom:

11 1. The court has ordered to pay restitution until the 12 restitution order is satisfied. ~~To retain jurisdiction,~~ The 13 court shall enter a restitution order, which is separate from 14 any disposition or order of commitment, on or prior to the date
15 that the court's jurisdiction would cease under this section.

16 The contents of the restitution order shall be limited to the

Amendment No.

17 child's name and address, the name and address of the parent or 18 legal guardian, the name and address of the payee, the case
19 number, the date and amount of restitution ordered, any amount
20 of restitution paid, the amount of restitution due and owing,
21 and a notation that costs, interest, penalties, and attorney's
22 fees may also be due and owing. The terms of the restitution
23 order are subject to s. 775.089(5).

24 2. The court has ordered to pay any court costs, costs
25 associated with court appointed-counsel, costs of investigation,
26 fees, fines, surcharges, or any other case-related financial 27 obligations until these are satisfied in full, regardless of 28 adjudication. The child and the child's parent or legal guardian
29 remain responsible for such unpaid court costs, costs associated 30 with court-appointed counsel, costs of investigation, fees,
31 fines, surcharges, and any other case-related financial
32 obligations until satisfied in full, even after the child turns
33 19 years of age. The implementation of this subparagraph does 34 not, in any way, authorize or otherwise permit details of the 35 juvenile court record to be disclosed, except as expressly
36 provided by law.

37
38 The retention of jurisdiction under this paragraph does not
39 preclude the department from closing out the community
40 supervision case for a child if the child has successfully met
41 all other conditions of the supervision case plan.
