

HR 9157

2008

1 House Resolution

2 A resolution designating April 24, 2008, as "Property
3 Rights Day" in Florida.

4
5 WHEREAS, property rights are inalienable human rights which 6 provide the foundation for individual freedom and individual 7 economic opportunity, and

8 WHEREAS, the protection of private property rights is a 9 guarantor of the ability of individual citizens to store the 10 value of their labor in the form of property assets and to 11 securely obtain and retain basic wealth as a result of 12 individual labor and industry, thereby providing all citizens 13 with the opportunity of social and economic advancement, and

14 WHEREAS, private property rights have played a foundational 15 role in the social and economic history of the United States, 16 and private property ownership is credited for helping to 17 transform both the Plymouth and Jamestown colonies into 18 successful enterprises, and

19 WHEREAS, the United States Constitution, the Bill of 20 Rights, and our unique form of federal government were designed 21 to protect the rights and freedoms of individual citizens, 22 specifically including private property rights, and

23 WHEREAS, the free exercise of private property rights has 24 played a pivotal role in the social and economic development of 25 the State of Florida, and

26 WHEREAS, private property rights serve as a key catalyst in 27 the state economy, because the protection of ownership rights
28 encourages individual aspiration and investment in the State of

HR 9157

2008

29 | Florida, and

30 | WHEREAS, private property rights are integrally linked to
31 | the social and economic welfare of the State of Florida and
32 | should be protected and promoted through public education, NOW,
33 | THEREFORE,

34 |

35 | Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of 36 | Florida:

37 |

38 | That April 24, 2008, is designated as "Property Rights Day"
39 | in Florida.