18 police officers as provided under this chapter, may assess and 19 impose on every insurance company, corporation, or other insurer 20 now engaged in or carrying on, or who shall hereafter engage in 21 or carry on, the business of casualty insurance as shown by 22 records of the Office of Insurance Regulation of the Financial 23 Services Commission, an excise tax in addition to any lawful 24 license or excise tax now levied by each of the said 25 municipalities, respectively, amounting to .85 percent of the 26 gross amount of receipts of premiums from policyholders on all 27 premiums collected on casualty insurance policies covering property within the corporate limits of such municipalities, 28 29 respectively.

30 (2) In the case of multiple peril policies with a single 31 premium for both property and casualty coverages in such 32 policies, 30 percent of such premium shall be used as the basis 33 for the .85-percent tax above.

34 (3) The excise tax shall be payable annually March 1 of 35 each year after the passing of an ordinance assessing and 36 imposing the tax herein authorized. Installments of taxes shall 37 be paid according to the provisions of s. 624.5092(2)(a), (b),
38 and (c).

40 This section also applies to any municipality that has entered into an interlocal agreement to receive police protection 41 42 services from another municipality under s. 185.03. The excise tax may be levied on all premiums collected on casualty insurance 43 policies covering property located within the corporate limits of 44 45 the municipality receiving the police protection services but is 46 available for distribution to the municipality providing the 47 police protection services.
