5 the prelicensure education of professional or practical nurses
6 shall submit a program application and a program review fee of 7 $1,000 to the department. Within 90 days after receipt of a 8 program application and program review fee, the board shall 9 approve the program application if it documents compliance with 10 the standards in paragraphs (a)-(h). If the program application 11 is incomplete or does not document compliance, the board shall 12 follow the procedures in subsection (3). A program application 13 is deemed approved by the board if the board does not act on the 14 application within the timeframes specified in subsection (3) or 15 this subsection. Each program
