FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Present Situation

Under current law, The Panama City commission is empowered to provide by ordinance for the establishment of a city planning board, the members are directed to serve without compensation, and charged with the duty to procure and suggest plans for the arrangement of the city including a vision to its general improvements and probable future growth and demands. It further specifies, that the members of the city commission and the city manager shall be ex officio members of the city planning board.

The board is charged specifically:

"...these plans to take into consideration the extension of the city works into adjacent territory, improvement and changes in public utilities, and lines of transportation by surface and water; the location, widths and grades of highways necessary for the best treatment of the city; the development and improvement of waterfronts with seawalls and wharves; the location and design of public buildings; municipal decoration and ornamentation; and such further extensions of and additions to the park and boulevard system as may be deemed advisable."
