Senator Lawson moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 26 and 27

insert:

Section 2. Section 11.13, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

11.13 Compensation of members; powers and duties.-

(1) (a) The annual salaries of members of the Senate and House of Representatives, payable in 12 equal monthly installments, shall be:

1. The President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives, $42,066 ~~$25,000~~ each.

2. All other members of the Senate and House of 145632

14 Representatives, $30,335.40 ~~$18,000~~ each.

15 (b) Effective July 1, 1986, and each July 1 thereafter, the 16 annual salaries of members of the Senate and House of 17 Representatives shall be adjusted by the average percentage 18 increase in the salaries of state career service employees for 19 the fiscal year just concluded. The Appropriations Committee of 20 each house shall certify to the Office of Legislative Services
21 the average percentage increase in the salaries of state career
22 service employees before July 1 of each year. The Office of 23 Legislative Services shall, as of July 1 of each year, determine 24 the adjusted annual salaries as provided herein.

25 (2) During the time the Legislature is in session, each
26 legislator shall be paid subsistence at a rate to be established 27 by the President of the Senate for members of the Senate and the 28 Speaker of the House of Representatives for members of the 29 House. Each legislator, in addition to subsistence, shall be 30 paid travel expenses in accordance with s. 112.061(7) and (8)
31 for actual travel between the legislator's home and the seat of 32 government for not more than one round trip per week or fraction
33 of a week during any regular, special, or extraordinary session
34 of the Legislature or for the convening of either the House or 35 Senate for official business.

36 (3) Members of any standing or select committee or 37 subcommittee thereof shall receive per diem and travel expenses
38 as provided in s. 112.061 from the appropriation for legislative 39 expenses.

40 (4) Each member of the Legislature shall be entitled to 41 receive a monthly allowance for intradistrict expenses in an 42 amount set annually by the President of the Senate for members

145632

43 of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives
44 for members of the House. In setting the amount, the costs of 45 maintaining a legislative district office or offices that 46 provide an appropriate level of constituent services shall be 47 considered. The procedure for disbursement of the monthly 48 intradistrict expense allowed shall be set from time to time by 49 the Office of Legislative Services, with the approval of the 50 President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of 51 Representatives or their respective designees. Such expenses
52 shall be a proper expense of the Legislature and shall be 53 disbursed from the appropriation for legislative expense. The 54 expenses provided under this subsection shall not include any 55 travel and per diem reimbursed under subsections (2) and (3) or 56 the rules of either house.

57 (5) (a) All expenditures of the Senate, House of 58 Representatives, and offices, committees, and divisions of the 59 Legislature shall be made pursuant to and, unless changed as 60 provided below, within the limits of budgetary estimates of 61 expenditure for each fiscal year prepared and submitted prior to 62 June 15 by the administrative head of each such house, office, 63 committee, or division and approved by the President of the 64 Senate as to Senate budgets, by the Speaker of the House of 65 Representatives as to House budgets, and by the President of the 66 Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives acting 67 jointly as to joint committees and other units of the 68 Legislature. Amounts in the approved estimates of expenditure
69 may be transferred between budgetary units within the Senate,
70 House of Representatives, and joint activities by the original 71 approving authority. Funds may be transferred between items of

145632

72 appropriation to the Legislature when approved by the President
73 of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives,
74 provided the total amount appropriated to the legislative branch
75 shall not be altered. The Office of Legislative Services shall 76 formulate and present to each house and office thereof
77 recommendations concerning the form and preparation of such 78 budgets and procedures for their adoption and transmission.

79 (b) Thirty days prior to the date established by s. 216.023
80 for submission of legislative budgets by all state agencies to 81 the Governor, all budgetary units required to submit estimates
82 of expenditures as provided by paragraph (a) shall annually
83 submit tentative estimates of their financial needs for the next 84 fiscal year beginning July 1 to the authorities required by that 85 paragraph so that the financial needs of the Legislature for the 86 ensuing fiscal year may be reported to the Governor by the 87 President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of 88 Representatives as required by s. 216.081.

89 (c) The Office of Legislative Services shall submit on 90 forms prescribed by the Chief Financial Officer requested
91 allotments of appropriations for the fiscal year. It shall be 92 the duty of the Chief Financial Officer to release the funds and 93 authorize the expenditures for the legislative branch to be made
94 from the appropriations on the basis of the requested
95 allotments. However, the aggregate of such allotments shall not 96 exceed the total appropriations available for the fiscal year.

97 (6) The pay of members of the Senate and House of 98 Representatives shall be only as set by law.

99 (7) The powers and duties of members of the Senate and 100 House of Representatives, include, but are not limited to the 145632

101 following, pursuant to the state constitution, general law, and 102 the rules adopted by the respective bodies:

103 (a) Providing for the generation of revenue to meet the 104 needs and expenses set forth in the state budget and balancing 105 and curing deficits as prescribed by the constitution and 106 general law;

107 (b) Filing bills to become constitutional amendments,
108 general law, or local law;

109 (c) Faithfully pursuing district priorities without 110 compromising statewide priorities;

111 (d) Conducting business with other members or persons, 112 whether in an official or committee capacity; pursuant to the 113 oath of office prescribed in s. 876.05 and s. 5, Art. II, State 114 Constitution; and

115 (e) Avoiding any form or appearance of a conflict of 116 interest or personal self-enrichment not in order of the office.

117
118 A member who violates this subsection commits a breach of the 119 public trust as defined in chapter 112 and is subject to 120 prosecution by the Commission on Ethics upon the filing of a 121 complaint with the commission.
