II. Present Situation:

The Florida Statutes contain reporting and planning requirements that are imposed on executive, legislative, and judicial agencies as well as semi-governmental corporations and advisory bodies. Some of these requirements remain in statute despite dates for requirements that fall in the past. Some are reporting and planning requirement attached to what were once new initiatives and were reasonable at the time the programs were created.

III. Effect of Proposed Changes:

Section 1 repeals s. 14.25, F.S., which creates and provides the duties of the Florida State Commission on Hispanic Affairs, currently established in the Executive Office of the Governor (EOG).

Section 2 amends s. 14.26, F.S., to modify the timing and content of reports that must be made to the EOG by the Citizen's Assistance Office, by removing the quarterly reporting requirement, deleting a requirement that the reports include suggested legislation, and clarifying the recommendations that must be made in the reports.

Section 3 repeals s. 14.27, F.S., which creates and provides the duties of the Florida Commission on African-American Affairs, currently established in the EOG.

Section 4 repeals s. 16.58, F.S., which creates and provides the duties of the Florida Legal Resource Center within the Department of Legal Affairs.

Section 5 amends s. 17.32, F.S., by changing the list of required recipients of the Chief Financial Officer's annual report on all trust funds defined in s. 215.32, F.S., from the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives to the Governor and the Legislature.

Section 6 amends s. 17.325, F.S., by removing the requirement that the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) report monthly to the appropriations committees of the Legislature on the information or suggestions received through the governmental efficiency hotline.

Section 7 amends s. 20.057, F.S., by removing the requirement that the Governor report annually, to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House, on interagency agreements made to delete duplication of inspections.

Section 8 amends s. 20.19, F.S., relating to the Department of Children and Family Services (DCF). The bill modifies the mission of the DCF, deletes the requirement that the DCF develop a strategic plan and establish measurable goals and performance standards, and deletes the provision providing that the DCF deliver services by contracts through private providers to the extent allowed by law and within specific appropriations. The bill deletes the requirement that the DCF develop projections of the number of child abuse cases and include in its LBR a specific appropriation for funds and positions for: (1) child protection investigation workers so that caseloads do not exceed certain standards; and, (2) child protection case workers so that caseloads do not exceed certain standards.

Section 9 repeals ss. 20.316(4)(e), (f), and (g), F.S., relating to Department of Juvenile Justice (DJJ) information system providing information. The bill deletes requirements that the DJJ (a) aggregate quarterly and annual program information and disseminate same to substantive committees of the Legislature; (b) provide an annual report on the juvenile justice information system to the Criminal and Juvenile Justice Information Systems Council, which then forwards the report with comments to appropriate substantive and appropriations committees of the Legislature; and, (c) include in its annual budget request a comprehensive summary of costs and cost savings associated with the implementation of the DJJ information system.

Section 10 amends s. 20.43, F.S., to change terminology from “strategic” plan to “long-range program” plan, consistent with the reference to s. 186.021, F.S.

Section 11 repeals s. 39.3065(3)(d), F.S., which requires DCF to submit an annual report regarding quality performance, outcome-measure attainment, and cost efficiency to the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to the Governor no later than January 31 of each year the sheriffs are receiving general appropriations to provide child protective investigations in certain counties. The paragraph also requires that program performance evaluation shall be based on criteria mutually agreed upon by the respective sheriffs and DCF.

Section 12 repeals s. 39.4086(2)(h), F.S., which requires the Office of the State Courts Administrator to conduct research and gather statistical information to evaluate the establishment, operation, and impact of the Attorney Ad Litem Program in the Ninth Judicial Circuit, and report to the Governor and the Legislature in October of 2001 and 2002 on its findings. A final report was required by October 1, 2003, which must include an evaluation of the pilot program; findings on the feasibility of a statewide program; and, recommendations, if any, for locating, establishing, and operating a statewide program.

Section 13 repeals s. 39.523(5), F.S., which requires a yearly report from DCF to the Legislature on children placed in residential group care.

Section 14 amends s. 98.255, F.S., relating to voter education programs, deleting a date already passed, removing the requirement that the Department of State (DOS) review current voter education programs within each county in adopting rules prescribing minimum standards for nonpartisan voter education, and removing the requirement that each year after a general election, the DOS report to the Legislature and the Governor on the effectiveness of voter education programs.

Section 15 amends s. 110.1227(7)(a), F.S., relating to the Florida Employee Long-Term-Care Plan Act, by requiring the board of directors of the Florida Long Term Care Plan to submit to the Governor and the Legislature an annual report of the plan, upon its implementation.

Section 16 amends s. 120.542, F.S., which requires a yearly report from agencies to the Legislature and Governor on agency petitions for rule variances and waivers.

Section 17 amends s. 120.60, F.S., by removing the requirement that agencies file the notice and certification of notice with the agency clerk, when the agency notifies an applicant of the grant or denial of a license.

Section 18 amends s. 120.695(2), F.S., by removing the definition of “rule,” renumbering the section, and removing the requirement that agencies submit a report on the review and designation of those rules for which violation would be a minor violation. The dates for the required review fall in the past.

Section 19 amends s. 121.45, F.S., concerning interstate compacts relating to pension portability, by removing requirements for actuarial studies at certain points when the Department of Management Services (DMS) is considering a proposed interstate compact between Florida and another state.

Section 20 repeals s. 153.952, F.S., the legislative findings and intent paragraph of the Local Government Utilities Assistance Act, a pilot program operated by the Department of Environmental Protection to assist local governments in acquiring privately owned water-wastewater facilities.

Section 21 amends s. 161.053, F.S., relating to coastal construction, excavation, and regulation, by removing a legislative intent paragraph concerning the updating of a coastal construction control line, and renumbering subsequent provisions of the section.

Section 22 amends s. 161.161(2), F.S., concerning the procedure for approval of beach management projects, by requiring that recommendations for the funding of beach erosion control projects be presented to the Legislature annually, instead of upon approval of the beach management plan.

Section 23 repeals s. 163.2526, F.S., which required a review of and report on the “Growth Policy Act.”

Section 24 amends s. 163.3167(2), F.S., relating to the Agricultural Lands and Practices Act, by removing requirements concerning a schedule for submitting comprehensive plans.

Section 25 amends s. 163.3177, F.S., by removing a schedule for comprehensive plan amendments, removing an outdated provision for recommending statutory changes for annexation, and removing a provision that exempted some comprehensive plan amendments from administrative challenge, for dates in the past.

Section 26 amends s. 163.3178, F.S., by removing the provision that required the Coastal Resources Interagency Management Committee to submit its recommendations regarding local government initiatives to the Legislature by December 1, 1993.

Section 27 repeals s. 163.519(12), F.S., which requires the Department of Legal Affairs to annually submit to the Legislature and the Governor a report on neighborhood improvement districts.

Section 28 repeals s. 186.007(9), F.S., which requires the EOG to appoint a committee to review and make recommendations as to appropriate revisions to the state comprehensive plan.

Section 29 amends s. 189.4035, F.S., to change the requirement that the Department of Community Affairs (DCA) distribute the official list of special districts to various entities to a requirement that the DCA make the list available on the DCA's website.

Section 30 amends s. 189.412, F.S., to change the requirement that the DCA update and distribute a master list of independent and special districts to a requirement that the DCA make the list available on the DCA's website.

Section 31 amends s. 194.034(2), F.S., by deleting a requirement that the Department of Revenue receive notification of certain decisions by value adjustment boards.
