- To support the development of a unified family court and to support the state courts system's efforts to improve the resolution of disputes involving children and families through a fully integrated, comprehensive approach.
- To focus on the needs of children who are involved in the litigation, refer families to resources that will make their relationships stronger, coordinate their cases to provide consistent results, and strive to leave families in better condition than when they entered the system.

This bill also provides that an individual affiliated with a non-profit legal aid organization may be appointed by a court as a guardian ad litem in limited cases.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Currently, legal issues involving children and families are frequently addressed by different divisions of the court, particularly in larger judicial circuits. In many cases, the parties are appearing before a different judge in each proceeding. Therefore, it is possible that a judge may be unaware of previous or pending related legal matters involving the same children or family before the court. Unified family courts are intended to address this problem.

Florida's initiative for a unified family court reform began as a result of increasing demands being placed on the judicial system by the large volume of cases involving children and families. As the number of family court filings significantly increased, the Supreme Court noted that it must seek to improve productivity and conserve resources.<sup>1</sup> Against this background, the Court created the Family Court Steering Committee in 1994 to, among other things, advise the Court about the circuits' responses to families in litigation and make recommendations on the characteristics of a model family court.<sup>2</sup>

In 2005, the Legislature implemented recommendations by the Florida Supreme Court related to the operation of a unified family court system.<sup>3</sup> These recommendations were to:

- Allow the court system to create a unique identifier to identify all court cases related to the same family.
- Provide that specified orders entered in dependency court take precedence over court orders entered in other civil proceedings.
- Provide that final orders and evidence admitted in dependency actions are admissible in evidence in subsequent civil proceedings under certain circumstances.

Effect of Bill -- Unified Family Court, In General

<sup>1</sup> See In Re Report of the Family Court Steering Committee, 794 So.2d 518 (Fla. 2001). The court, at p.520, reported that as of 1998 and 1999, family law cases constituted the largest percentage of all circuit court filings -- over 40%. The court also reported that for this same period, these cases overwhelmingly represented the largest percentage of circuit court cases that were reopened -- almost 70%.

These additional purposes are added to chapter 39, F.S., pertaining to proceedings relating to children; chapter 61, F.S., pertaining to dissolution of marriage, support, and custody; chapter 63, F.S., pertaining to adoption; section 68.07, F.S., pertaining to name change; chapter 88, F.S., pertaining to the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act; chapter 741, F.S., pertaining to marriage and domestic violence; chapter 742, F.S., pertaining to determination of parentage; chapter 743, F.S., pertaining to disability of nonage of minors removed; chapter 984, F.S., pertaining to children and families in need of services; chapter 985, F.S., pertaining to the juvenile justice system; and part II of chapter 1003, F.S., pertaining to school attendance. The additional purposes and legislative intent include:

- To provide all children and families with a fully integrated, comprehensive approach to handling all cases that involve children and families, while at the same time resolving family disputes in a fair, timely, efficient, and cost-effective manner.

A volunteer guardian ad litem under a legal aid organization may only serve in an action for dissolution of marriage, modification, parental responsibility, custody or visitation. The legal aid organization must conduct a security background investigation which conforms to the requirements of s. 39.821, F.S., prior to any appointment.<sup>5</sup>

IV. AMENDMENTS/COUNCIL OR COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

On March 6, 2009, the Civil Justice and Courts Policy Committee adopted an amendment to rectify an apparent conflict with the bill's extension of the general statement of legislative intent regarding the policy of a unified family court throughout the justice system with the current specific emphasis in chapter 985 regarding juvenile offenders in the juvenile justice system on public safety, having juvenile offenders appreciate the consequences of their crimes, and in the provision for transfer of certain dangerous juvenile offenders to adult court.
