

1                   A bill to be entitled
 2           An act relating to challenging a person desiring to vote; 3           amending s. 101.111, F.S.; prohibiting a voter from being 4           challenged on the basis of certain documents; prohibiting 5           certain persons from submitting a formal challenge to an 6           individual's eligibility to register to vote or to vote in 7           any election under certain circumstances; providing an 8           effective date.

9
 10   Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

11
 12           Section 1. Present subsection (2) of section 101.111, 13   Florida Statutes, is renumbered as subsection (4), and new 14   subsections (2) and (3) are added to that section, to read:

15           101.111 Person desiring to vote may be challenged;
 16   challenger to execute oath; oath of person challenged;
 17   determination of challenge.--

18           (2) A voter may not be challenged on the basis of the 19   following documents:

20           (a) A "voter caging document," which is defined as a 21   nonforwardable document that is sent by a person other than a 22   state or local election official and that is returned to the 23   sender or a third party as undelivered or undeliverable despite 24   an attempt to deliver such document to the address of a
 25   registered voter or an applicant for registration;

26           (b) A list of individuals compiled from voter caging 27   documents; or

28           (c) A list produced by matching the information of

HB 531

2009

29 registered voters or applicants for voter registration to a list
30 of individuals who are ineligible to vote by virtue of death, 31 conviction, change of address, or otherwise, unless one of the 32 pieces of information matched includes a signature, photograph, 33 or unique identifying number ensuring that the information from 34 each source refers to the same individual.

35 (3) A person who is not a state or local election official
36 may not submit a formal challenge to an individual's eligibility 37 to register to vote or to vote in any election if the basis for 38 such challenge is evidence consisting of an error or omission on 39 any record or paper relating to any application, registration,
40 or other act requisite to voting, and if such error or omission
41 is not material to the individual's eligibility to vote as 42 provided by law.

43 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2009.
