Senator Baker moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 91 and 92
insert:

Section 2. The Department of Transportation shall direct a study to be conducted and funded by the authority created in chapter 349, Florida Statutes, for the purpose of recommending to the Legislature the framework for a regional transportation authority for the northeast region of Florida, composed of the following counties and each of the municipalities located therein: Baker, Clay, Duval, Flagler, Nassau, Putnam, and St. Johns. The study shall include, at a minimum, the existing 13 powers and duties of the authority, as well as the additional 14 powers and duties necessary for the agency to plan, design, 15 finance, construct, operate, and maintain transportation

16 facilities providing a safe, adequate, and efficient surface 17 transportation network for the region, consistent with the 18 statewide transportation network. In addition, the study shall 19 address agency revenue sources, governance, coordination of work 20 plans, and coordination with local comprehensive plans for all 21 transportation facilities of the agency. Recommendations shall 22 be delivered to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the 23 House of Representatives no later than February 1, 2010.
