The Committee on Judiciary (Gelber) recommended the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete lines 36 - 39

and insert:

minor children, to waive any claims against the activity provider and its employees for the inherent risks involved in any activity; however, any waiver or release by a natural guardian on behalf of any of his or her minor children does not grant civil immunity to any person or entity whose negligence, gross negligence, or intentional conduct causes injury to a minor child sustained in the course of an activity. As used in

755274

13 this section, the term "negligence" means doing something that a
14 reasonably careful person would not do under like circumstances
15 or failing to do something that a reasonably careful person
16 would do under like circumstances.

17 (c) In addition to the authority granted in paragraph (a),
18 natural guardians are authorized, on behalf of any of their 19 minor children, to sign waivers or releases in accordance with 20 chapter 773, regarding equine activities and s. 549.09,
21 regarding motor sport activities.
