and insert:

Section 1. Section 501.0117, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

501.0117 Credit cards; transactions in which seller or lessor prohibited from imposing surcharge; penalty.—

(1) A seller or lessor in a sales or lease transaction may not impose a surcharge on the buyer or lessee for electing to use a credit card in lieu of payment by cash, check, or similar

166442

14 means, if the seller or lessor accepts payment by credit card. A 15 surcharge is any additional amount imposed at the time of a sale 16 or lease transaction by the seller or lessor that increases the 17 charge to the buyer or lessee for the privilege of using a 18 credit card to make payment. Charges imposed pursuant to 19 approved state or federal tariffs are not considered to be a 20 surcharge, and charges made under such tariffs are exempt from 21 this section. The term "credit card" includes those cards for 22 which unpaid balances are payable on demand and, for purposes of 23 this section, the term also includes any prepaid device that 24 contains government benefit program funds, including, but not 25 limited to, social security, unemployment benefits, and the 26 Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and 27 Children. This section does not apply to the offering of a 28 discount for the purpose of inducing payment by cash, check, or 29 other means not involving the use of a credit card, if the 30 discount is offered to all prospective customers.

31 (2) A person who violates ~~the provisions of~~ subsection (1)
32 commits is guilty of a misdemeanor of the second degree,
33 punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083.

34 Section 2. Subsection (8) is added to section 817.60,
35 Florida Statutes, to read:

36 817.60 Theft; obtaining credit card through fraudulent
37 means.-

38 (8) UNLAWFUL POSSESSION OF A STOLEN CREDIT OR DEBIT CARD.-A 39 person who knowingly possesses, receives, or retains custody of 40 a credit or debit card that has been taken from the possession,
41 custody, or control of another without the cardholder's consent
42 and with the intent to impede the recovery of the credit or

43 debit card by the cardholder commits unlawful possession of a 44 stolen credit or debit card and is subject to the penalties set 45 forth in s. 817.67(2). A retailer that takes, accepts, retains, 46 possesses, or processes a stolen credit card or debit card does 47 not commit a violation of this subsection if the retailer does 48 so in the ordinary course of business and the retailer does not 49 have actual knowledge that the credit card or debit card is 50 stolen; provided, this exception does not apply to a retail
51 employee who has actual knowledge that the credit card or debit
52 card is stolen.
