HB 1125 2010

A bill to be entitled

An act relating to Medicaid postpartum benefits; amending s. 409.903, F.S.; providing for continuation of Medicaid coverage for women eligible for prenatal care benefits under certain circumstances and for a specified period postpartum; requiring the Agency for Health Care Administration to electronically enroll eligible women; authorizing the agency to seek waiver authority; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. Subsection (5) of section 409.903, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

409.903 Mandatory payments for eligible persons.—The agency shall make payments for medical assistance and related services on behalf of the following persons who the department, or the Social Security Administration by contract with the Department of Children and Family Services, determines to be eligible, subject to the income, assets, and categorical eligibility tests set forth in federal and state law. Payment on behalf of these Medicaid eligible persons is subject to the availability of moneys and any limitations established by the

(5) (a) A pregnant woman for the duration of her pregnancy and for the postpartum period as defined in federal law and rule, or a child under age 1, if either is living in a family that has an income which is at or below 150 percent of the most current federal poverty level, or, effective January 1, 1992, that has an income which is at or below 185 percent of the most current federal poverty level. Such a person is not subject to an assets test. Further, a pregnant woman who applies for eligibility for the Medicaid program through a qualified Medicaid provider must be offered the opportunity, subject to federal rules, to be made presumptively eligible for the Medicaid program.

(b) Effective January 1, 2011, a woman who was eligible for Medicaid prenatal care benefits during pregnancy and who delivered a low birth weight or premature baby or who experienced a fetal death in the course of her most recent pregnancy. Such a woman is eligible for full Medicaid benefits for 2 years postpartum, including primary health care and family planning services. The agency shall electronically enroll a woman eligible under this paragraph for full Medicaid benefits on the date of the delivery of the low birth weight or premature baby or on the date of the fetal death. The agency may seek a Medicaid state plan amendment or federal waiver approval to implement this paragraph.

Section 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 2011.
