95 until 20 days after opening the bids, proposals, or replies the 96 ~~final competitive sealed replies are all opened~~, whichever
97 occurs first earlier.

98 3. If the agency rejects all bids, proposals, or sealed
99 replies and concurrently provides notice of its intent to 100 reissue a competitive procurement solicitation, the recording,
101 documents, and written materials remain remains exempt from s.
102 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution until 103 ~~such time as~~ the agency provides notice of a decision or 104 intended decision pursuant to s. 120.57(3)(a) concerning the 105 solicitation reissued invitation to negotiate or until the 106 agency withdraws the reissued solicitation invitation to 107 negotiate. Recordings, documents, and written materials are A 108 ~~recording is~~ not exempt for longer than 12 months after the 109 initial agency notice rejecting all bids, proposals, or replies.

110 (b)(e) This subsection is subject to the Open Government
111 Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand 112 repealed on October 2, 2015 2011, unless reviewed and saved from 113 repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

114 Section 3. (1) The Legislature finds that it is a public
115 necessity that bids, proposals, or replies submitted in response
116 to a competitive procurement solicitation be made temporarily

117 exempt from public-records requirements. Such records shall be 118 made available when the governmental agency provides notice of a
119 final decision or intended final decision on the solicitation, 120 or when the governmental agency rejects all bids, proposals, or 121 replies and ultimately withdraws a reissued competitive
122 solicitation. Temporarily protecting such information ensures 123 that the process of responding to a solicitation remains fair
124 and economical for vendors, while still preserving oversight
125 after a procurement decision is made or withdrawn.

126 (2) In addition, the Legislature finds that it is a public
127 necessity that a meeting at which a vendor makes an oral
128 presentation or answers questions as part of a competitive
129 procurement solicitation be made temporarily exempt from public-
130 meetings requirements. In addition, it is a public necessity 131 that any documents or written materials presented as such 132 meetings be temporarily exempt from public-records requirements.
133 The recording of the meeting and any accompanying documents and 134 materials shall be made available when the governmental agency
135 provides notice of a final decision or intended final decision
136 on the solicitation, or when the governmental agency rejects all 137 bids, proposals, or replies and ultimately withdraws a reissued
138 competitive solicitation. Temporarily protecting such meetings, 139 documents, and materials ensures that the process of responding 140 to a competitive solicitation remains fair and economical for 141 vendors, while still preserving oversight after a procurement 142 decision is made or withdrawn. It is unfair and inequitable to 143 compel vendors to disclose to competitors the nature and details
144 of their proposals during such meetings or through the materials 145 presented at such meetings. Such disclosure impedes full and

146 frank discussion of the strengths, weaknesses, and value of a 147 proposal, thereby limiting the ability of the governmental 148 agency to obtain the best value for the public. The public and 149 private harm stemming from these practices outweighs the 150 temporary delay in making the meetings, documents, and materials 151 related to the solicitation process open and available to the 152 public.

153 Section 4. This act shall take effect July 1, 2010.
