31 under the Parental Notice of Abortion Act ~~pertaining to a minor~~
32 ~~seeking to terminate her pregnancy, any information in a record~~ 33 ~~held by the circuit court or an appellate court which could be~~ 34 ~~used to identify the minor is:~~

35 (a) Confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), 36 Art. I of the State Constitution if held by a circuit court or 37 an appellate court.

38 (b) Confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a),
39 Art. I of the State Constitution if held by the Office of 40 Criminal Conflict and Civil Regional Counsel or the Justice
41 Administrative Commission.

42 (2) Paragraph (1)(b) is subject to the Open Government
43 Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand 44 repealed on October 2, 2015, unless reviewed and saved from 45 repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

46 Section 2. (1) The Legislature finds that it is a public
47 necessity to make confidential and exempt from public-records
48 requirements any information that can be used to identify a 49 minor petitioning a circuit court for a judicial waiver from the 50 statutory requirement that a parent or legal guardian be 51 notified when that minor seeks to terminate her pregnancy when 52 such information is held by the Office of Criminal Conflict and 53 Civil Regional Counsel or the Justice Administrative Commission.
54 During representation of minors in judicial-waiver cases under 55 the Parental Notice of Abortion Act, the Office of Criminal 56 Conflict and Civil Regional Counsel may obtain identifying 57 information from the minors. Similarly, the Justice 58 Administrative Commission may receive identifying information of

59 minors which is related to the processing of attorney billing 60 and payment requests for representation in these cases. Because 61 the information contained in these records is of a sensitive, 62 personal nature regarding a minor petitioner, and because the 63 Office of Criminal Conflict and Civil Regional Counsel and the 64 Justice Administrative Commission are subject to public-records 65 requests, the release of this information could harm the 66 reputation of the minor, as well as jeopardize her safety.
67 Disclosure of this information could jeopardize the safety of 68 the minor in instances when child abuse or child sexual abuse
69 against her is present by exposing her to further acts of abuse
70 from an abuser who, without the public-records exemption, could 71 learn of the minor's pregnancy, her plans to terminate the 72 pregnancy, and her petition to the court.

73 (2) The Legislature further finds that it is a public
74 necessity to keep this identifying information in records held 75 by the Office of Criminal Conflict and Civil Regional Counsel or 76 the Justice Administrative Commission confidential and exempt in 77 order to protect the privacy of the minor. The State
78 Constitution contains an express right of privacy in Section 23
79 of Article I. In addition, the United States Supreme Court has 80 repeatedly required parental-notification laws to contain 81 judicial-bypass procedures that preserve the anonymity of the 82 minor at every level of the court process in order to protect 83 the privacy rights of the minor. Without the confidential and 84 exempt status for this information while held by the Office of 85 Criminal Conflict and Civil Regional Counsel or the Justice
86 Administrative Commission, as well as by the circuit or 87 appellate courts, the constitutionality of the state's program

88 providing for notification of a minor's termination of 89 pregnancy, and the judicial-bypass procedure in particular,
90 would be in question. Thus, the public-records exemption
91 provided in this act is also necessary for the effective 92 administration of the state's program, the administration of 93 which would be impaired without the exemption.

94 Section 3. Section 2 of chapter 2005-104, Laws of Florida,
95 is repealed.

96 Section 4. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
