SUMMARY ANALYSIS

HB 1293 makes several revisions to law relating to the Food Stamp program & WAGES program to conform to current federal and state law. The bill replaces all references in statute using either "food stamp" or "food stamp program," and replaces with either the "Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program" or "food assistance." The bill replaces all references in statute using either "WAGES" or "WAGES Program" with "temporary cash assistance" or "Temporary Cash Assistance Program."

The bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact on state or local governments.

The bill becomes effective on July 1, 2010.

HOUSE PRINCIPLES

Members are encouraged to evaluate proposed legislation in light of the following guiding principles of the House of Representatives

- Balance the state budget.
- Create a legal and regulatory environment that fosters economic growth and job creation.
- Lower the tax burden on families and businesses.
- Reverse or restrain the growth of government.
- Promote public safety.
- Promote educational accountability, excellence, and choice.
- Foster respect for the family and for innocent human life.
- Protect Florida's natural beauty.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Background

In 2008 Congress passed the Food, Conservation and Energy Act, which changed the name of the federal Food Stamp Program to the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP).¹ States retained flexibility to name the program but were encouraged to change the name to SNAP or another alternate name.² Food Stamps have not been issued in Florida since 1998 when the state converted to electronic benefit transfer cards.³

In 2000, the Florida Legislature passed the Workforce Innovation Act⁴ that defined temporary cash assistance as DCF's eligibility program for financial assistance to needy families with or expecting children.⁵ It also defined the welfare transition program as the state's program for providing work activities and providing parents with job presentation, work opportunities, and support services to enable them to leave the program and be self-sufficient.⁶ Prior to passage of the Workforce Innovation Act, the statute defined the Work and Gain Economic Self-sufficiency (WAGES) Program as the program providing these services.

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill proposes several revisions to law relating to the Food Stamp Program & WAGES Program to conform to current federal and state law.

The bill replaces all references in statute using either "food stamp" or "food stamp program," and replaces with either the "Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program" or "food assistance." The effect of this change will conform to the current food assistance program under federal law.
