31 of the State Constitution and may be used only for purposes of 46 who are victims of stalking or aggravated stalking are exempt

47 from s. 119.071(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State
48 Constitution in the same manner that the names, addresses, and 49 telephone numbers of participants in the Address Confidentiality
50 Program for Victims of Domestic Violence which are held by the 51 Attorney General under s. 741.465 are exempt from disclosure,
52 provided that the victim files a sworn statement of stalking
53 with the Office of the Attorney General and otherwise complies
54 with the procedures in ss. 741.401-741.409.

57 exemption.

58 (5) Subsection (3) is subject to the Open Government Sunset
59 Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed
60 on October 2, 2015, unless reviewed and saved from repeal
61 through reenactment by the Legislature.

62 Section 2. Section 3 of chapter 2005-279, Laws of Florida,
63 is repealed.

64 Section 3. The Legislature finds that it is a public 65 necessity that the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of 66 victims of stalking or aggravated stalking, which are held by 67 the Office of the Attorney General or contained in voter
68 registration records and voting records held by the Department
69 of State or the supervisor of elections, be made exempt from 70 public-records requirements. The victims, who may be members of 71 the voting public, must be afforded the ability to participate
72 in the election process. However, the department and supervisor 73 of elections must maintain a verifiable address in order to 74 place the voter in the proper voting precinct and to maintain 75 accurate records for compliance with state and federal 76 requirements. The public-records exemption for the name is a 77 public necessity because access to such name narrows the 78 location of a stalking victim to a specific, geographic voting
79 precinct. In addition, access to the address and telephone 80 number provides specific location and contact information for 81 the victim. Therefore, access to the name, address, and 82 telephone number defeats the goal of providing safety and 83 security. Allowing victims of stalking or aggravated stalking to 84 use a substitute mailing address designated by the Office of the 85 Attorney General facilitates the goal of providing safety and

86 security. Thus, the Legislature finds that it is a public
87 necessity to make exempt from public disclosure the names, 88 addresses, and telephone numbers of victims of stalking or 89 aggravated stalking held by the Office of the Attorney General, 90 by the department, or by a supervisor of elections.

91 Section 4. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
