12
13           Section 1. Paragraphs (a) and (d) of subsection (1) of 14           section 101.657, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

15           101.657 Early voting.—

16           (1) (a) As a convenience to the voter, the supervisor of 17           elections shall allow an elector to vote early in the main or 18           branch office of the supervisor. The supervisor shall mark, 19           code, indicate on, or otherwise track the voter's precinct for 20           each early voted ballot. In order for a branch office to be used 21           for early voting, it shall be a permanent facility of the 22           supervisor and shall have been designated and used as such for 23           at least 1 year prior to the election. The supervisor may also 24           designate any city hall; public university, college, or 25           community college facility; or permanent public library facility 26           as early voting sites; however, if so designated, the sites must 27           be geographically located so as to provide all voters in the 28           county an equal opportunity to cast a ballot, insofar as is 29           practicable. The results or tabulation of votes cast during
