144 and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the 145 children of such defenders or counsel are exempt from s.
146 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution. This 152 specified in subparagraph 1. and that is not the employer of the 153 officer, employee, justice, judge, or other person specified in 154 subparagraph 1. shall maintain the exempt status of that

156 person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a 157 written request for maintenance of the exemption to the 158 custodial agency.

159 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 160 necessity to exempt specified personal information relating to 161 current and former public defenders, assistant public defenders,
162 criminal conflict and civil regional counsel, and assistant 163 criminal conflict and civil regional counsel, as well as their 164 spouses and children, from disclosure under the public-records
165 laws of the state. In the course of representing defendants in 166 criminal prosecutions, these attorneys routinely interact with 167 individuals who have criminal records or who are currently 168 engaged in or suspected of criminal activity. These attorneys
169 also interact with the victims of crimes. In addition, criminal 170 conflict and civil regional counsel and their assistants also 171 provide representation in sensitive civil matters, such as those 172 in which a person's parental rights may be terminated based on

660940

585-02151A-10

173 allegations of perpetrating abuse and neglect against a child.
174 By providing legal representation in criminal and civil matters,
175 these attorneys provide a valuable service. However, individuals 176 may become disgruntled by the proceedings or the outcome of a
177 criminal or civil case, which could result in these attorneys
178 and their families becoming targets for acts of violence.
179 Disclosure of the information protected by the public-records 180 exemption created by this act would jeopardize the safety of 181 these attorneys and their families. Therefore, it is a public
182 necessity to exempt from disclosure the home addresses,
183 telephone numbers, and photographs of current or former public 184 defenders, assistant public defenders, criminal conflict and 185 civil regional counsel, and assistant criminal conflict and 186 civil regional counsel; the home addresses, telephone numbers, 187 and places of employment of the spouses and children of such 188 defenders or counsel; and the names and locations of schools and 189 day care facilities attended by the children of such defenders
190 or counsel.

191 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2010.
