The Committee on Children, Families, and Elder Affairs (Storms) recommended the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Delete lines 208 - 218
and insert:

(7) At any time, the petitioner or either or both of the child's parents may move the court to terminate the order granting concurrent custody. The court shall terminate the order upon a finding that either or both of the child's parents object to the order. The fact that an order for concurrent custody has been terminated does not preclude any person who is otherwise eligible to petition for temporary custody from filing such petition.

676634

13 (8) At any time, the petitioner or either or both of the 14 child's parents may move the court to modify the existing child
15 support order pursuant to ch. 61, F.S. The court may modify an 16 existing order granting child support if the parties consent and 17 if modification is in the best interest of the child. Any order
18 modifying child support in a concurrent custody proceeding shall 19 be copied and placed in the related family court files.

20 Section 6. This act shall take effect January 1, 2011.
