Representative Schultz offered the following:

Amendment (with directory and title amendments)

Between lines 999 and 1000, insert:

(7) A county tax collector may establish one or more branch offices by acquiring title to real property or by lease agreement. The tax collector may staff and equip such branch offices to conduct state business or, if authorized to do so by resolution of the county governing body, conduct county business pursuant to s. (1)(k), Art. VIII of the State Constitution. The department shall rely on the tax collector's determination that a branch office is necessary and shall base its approval of the tax collector's budget in accordance with the procedures of s. 195.087(2).
