57 Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand 58 repealed on October 2, 2015, unless reviewed and saved from 59 repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

60 Section 2. Section 3 of chapter 2005-279, Laws of Florida,
61 is repealed.

62 Section 3. The Legislature finds that it is a public 63 necessity that the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of 64 victims of stalking or aggravated stalking, which are held by 65 the Office of the Attorney General or contained in voter
66 registration records and voting records held by the Department
67 of State or the supervisor of elections, be made exempt from 68 public-records requirements. The victims, who may be members of 69 the voting public, must be afforded the ability to participate
70 in the election process. However, the department and supervisor 71 of elections must maintain a verifiable address in order to 72 place the voter in the proper voting precinct and to maintain 73 accurate records for compliance with state and federal 74 requirements. The public-records exemption for the name is a 75 public necessity because access to such name narrows the 76 location of a stalking victim to a specific, geographic voting
77 precinct. In addition, access to the address and telephone 78 number provides specific location and contact information for 79 the victim. Therefore, access to the name, address, and 80 telephone number defeats the goal of providing safety and 81 security. Allowing victims of stalking or aggravated stalking to 82 use a substitute mailing address designated by the Office of the 83 Attorney General facilitates the goal of providing safety and 84 security. Thus, the Legislature finds that it is a public

85 necessity to make exempt from public disclosure the names,
86 addresses, and telephone numbers of victims of stalking or 87 aggravated stalking held by the Office of the Attorney General,
88 by the department, or by a supervisor of elections.

89 Section 4. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
