 21 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

22
 23 Section 1. Subsection (10) is added to section 1009.26,
 24 Florida Statutes, to read:

25 1009.26 Fee waivers.—

26 (10) A state university or community college may waive
 27 tuition and fees for a classroom teacher, as defined in s.
 28 1012.01(2)(a), who is employed full-time by a school district

29 and who meets the academic requirements established by the 30 community college or state university for up to 6 credit hours
31 per term on a space-available basis in undergraduate courses
32 approved by the Department of Education. Such courses shall be 33 limited to undergraduate courses related to special education,
34 mathematics, or science. The waiver may not be used for courses 35 scheduled during the school district's regular school day. The 36 State Board of Education shall adopt a rule that prescribes the 37 process for the approval of courses by the department.

38 Section 2. Subsection (5) is added to section 1004.26,
39 Florida Statutes, to read:

40 1004.26 University student governments.—

41 (5) There shall be no cause of action against a state
42 university for the actions or decisions of the student 43 government of that state university unless the action or 44 decision is made final by the state university and constitutes a 45 violation of state or federal law.

46 Section 3. Subsection (1) of section 501.0117, Florida
47 Statutes, is amended to read:

48 501.0117 Credit cards; transactions in which seller or 49 lessor prohibited from imposing surcharge; penalty.—

50 (1) A seller or lessor in a sales or lease transaction may 51 not impose a surcharge on the buyer or lessee for electing to 52 use a credit card in lieu of payment by cash, check, or similar 53 means, if the seller or lessor accepts payment by credit card. A 54 surcharge is any additional amount imposed at the time of a sale 55 or lease transaction by the seller or lessor that increases the 56 charge to the buyer or lessee for the privilege of using a

57 credit card to make payment. Charges imposed pursuant to 58 approved state or federal tariffs are not considered to be a 59 surcharge, and charges made under such tariffs are exempt from 60 this section. A convenience fee imposed upon a student or family
61 paying tuition, fees, or other student account charges by credit
62 card to a William L. Boyd, IV, Florida resident access grant 63 eligible institution, as defined in s. 1009.89, is not 64 considered to be a surcharge and is exempt from this section if 65 the amount of the convenience fee does not exceed the total cost
66 charged by the credit card company to the institution. The term 67 "credit card" includes those cards for which unpaid balances are 68 payable on demand. This section does not apply to the offering 69 of a discount for the purpose of inducing payment by cash, 70 check, or other means not involving the use of a credit card, if 71 the discount is offered to all prospective customers.

72 Section 4. Subsection (15) of section 1009.23, Florida
73 Statutes, is amended to read:

74 1009.23 Community college student fees.—

75 (15) Each community college may assess a service charge
76 for the payment of tuition and fees in installments and a
77 convenience fee for the processing of automated or online credit
78 card payments. However, the amount of the convenience fee may 79 not exceed the total cost charged by the credit card company to 80 the community college. Such service charge or convenience fee
81 must be approved by the community college board of trustees.

82 Section 5. This act shall take effect July 1, 2010.
