Senator Bennett moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 109 and 110

insert:

Section 4. Paragraph (k) of subsection (3) of section 626.2815, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

626.2815 Continuing education required; application; exceptions; requirements; penalties.—

(3)

(k) Any person who holds a license to solicit or sell life insurance in this state must complete a minimum of 3 hours in continuing education, approved by the department, on the subject of suitability in annuity and life insurance transactions. This

884116

14 requirement does not apply to an agent who does not have any 15 active life insurance or annuity contracts. In applying this 16 exemption, the department may require the filing of a
17 certification attesting that the agent has not sold life
18 insurance or annuities during the continuing education
19 compliance cycle in question and does not have any active life
20 insurance or annuity contracts. A licensee may use the hours
21 obtained under this paragraph to satisfy the requirement for 22 continuing education in ethics under paragraph (a).
