

HR 9073

2010

1 House Resolution

2 A resolution observing National Parents' Day throughout
3 the state on July 25, 2010.

4
5 WHEREAS, throughout human history, the foundation of each 6 civilization has been and continues to be the family unit, and

7 WHEREAS, with tremendous love and commitment, parents
8 undertake the unique and essential role of developing a child's 9 character while guiding the child to become an independent and 10 responsible person, and

11 WHEREAS, in a bipartisan effort to recognize the important
12 role that parents assume in the lives of their children,
13 Congress unanimously passed a bill in 1994, which was signed
14 into law by President Bill Clinton, establishing a national day 15 of observance for parents, and

16 WHEREAS, the goal of National Parents' Day is to increase 17 awareness of parental responsibilities and to support and 18 encourage parents in their efforts to raise their children, and

19 WHEREAS, National Parents' Day is to be celebrated on the 20 fourth Sunday in July each year, and

21 WHEREAS, the State of Florida is pleased to join in the 22 effort to recognize parents for the unique contributions they 23 make to the lives of the children of this state, NOW, THEREFORE,

24
25 Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of 26 Florida:
