1 A bill to be entitled
2 An act relating to condominiums; amending s. 718.303,
3 F.S.; specifying common elements for which right of use
4 may be suspended by a condominium association if a unit
5 owner is delinquent in paying a monetary obligation;
6 providing an effective date.

8 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

9
10 Section 1. Subsection (3) of section 718.303, Florida
11 Statutes, is amended to read:

12 718.303 Obligations of owners and occupants; remedies.—

13 (3) If a unit owner is delinquent for more than 90 days in 14 paying a monetary obligation due to the association, the 15 association may suspend the right of a unit owner or a unit's
16 occupant, licensee, or invitee to use common elements, common
17 facilities, or any other association property until the monetary 18 obligation is paid. The common elements include, but are not 19 limited to, recreation facilities, pools, gyms, meeting rooms,
20 and valet service. This subsection does not apply to limited
21 common elements intended to be used only by that unit, common
22 elements that must be used to access the unit, utility services
23 provided to the unit, parking spaces, or elevators. The 24 association may also levy reasonable fines for the failure of 25 the owner of the unit, or its occupant, licensee, or invitee, to 26 comply with any provision of the declaration, the association
27 bylaws, or reasonable rules of the association. A fine does not 28 become a lien against a unit. A fine may not exceed $100 per

29 violation. However, a fine may be levied on the basis of each 30 day of a continuing violation, with a single notice and 31 opportunity for hearing. However, the fine may not in the 32 aggregate exceed $1,000. A fine may not be levied and a 33 suspension may not be imposed unless the association first 34 provides at least 14 days' written notice and an opportunity for 35 a hearing to the unit owner and, if applicable, its occupant,
36 licensee, or invitee. The hearing must be held before a 37 committee of other unit owners who are neither board members nor 38 persons residing in a board member's household. If the committee 39 does not agree with the fine or suspension, the fine or 40 suspension may not be levied or imposed.

41 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2011.
