Senate Concurrent Resolution

A concurrent resolution calling for the Congress of the United States to call a convention pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution to propose a constitutional amendment permitting repeal of any federal law or regulation by vote of two-thirds of the state legislatures.

WHEREAS, Article I of the United States Constitution begins "All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress," and

WHEREAS, the Congress has exceeded the legislative powers granted in the Constitution thereby encroaching on the powers that are "reserved to the states respectively, or to the people" as the Tenth Amendment affirms and the rights "retained by the people" to which the Ninth Amendment refers, and

WHEREAS, this encroachment includes the accumulation of federal debt, which combined with interest represents a future tax, and is of such great proportion that responsibility for its payment will be passed to future, unborn generations of Americans to assume without their consent, thereby disparaging their rights, and

WHEREAS, this encroachment also includes compelling state and local governments to comply with federal laws and regulations without accompanying funding for such mandates, and

WHEREAS, in Federalist No. 85, Alexander Hamilton wrote in reference to Article V of the Constitution and the calling of a convention for the purpose of proposing amendments that, "We may safely rely on the disposition of the State legislatures to

31 authority," and

32 WHEREAS, the Constitution should be amended in order to 33 halt federal encroachment and restore a proper balance between 34 the powers of Congress and those of the several states, and to 35 prevent the denial or disparagement of the rights retained by 36 the people, NOW, THEREFORE,

37
38 Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House
39 of Representatives Concurring:

46 law or regulation by vote of two-thirds of the state
47 legislatures, and the Florida delegation to such convention, 48 when called, shall propose the following amendment: "Any 49 provision of law or regulation of the United States may be 50 repealed by the several states, and such repeal shall be 51 effective when the legislatures of two-thirds of the several 52 states approve resolutions for this purpose that particularly 53 describe the same provision or provisions of law or regulation 54 to be repealed," and

55 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this resolution is revoked and 56 withdrawn, nullified, and superseded to the same effect as if it 57 had never been passed, and retroactive to the date of passage,
