organization that provides companion services or homemaker services must register with the agency. Organizations that provide companion services only for persons with developmental disabilities, as defined in s. 393.063, under contract with the Agency for Persons with Disabilities, are exempt from registration with the agency.

Section 37. For the purpose of incorporating the amendment made by this act to section 400.509, Florida Statutes, in a reference thereto, paragraph (b) of subsection (5) of section 400.464, Florida Statutes, is reenacted to read:

400.464 Home health agencies to be licensed; expiration of license; exemptions; unlawful acts; penalties.-

- (5) The following are exempt from the licensure requirements of this part:
- (b) Home health services provided by a state agency, either directly or through a contractor with:
  - 1. The Department of Elderly Affairs.
- 2. The Department of Health, a community health center, or a rural health network that furnishes home visits for the purpose of providing environmental assessments, case management, health education, personal care services, family planning, or followup treatment, or for the purpose of monitoring and tracking disease.
- 3. Services provided to persons with developmental disabilities, as defined in s. 393.063.
- 4. Companion and sitter organizations that were registered under s. 400.509(1) on January 1, 1999, and were authorized to provide personal services under a developmental services provider certificate on January 1, 1999, may continue to provide such services to past, present, and future clients of the organization who need such services, notwithstanding the provisions of this act.

5. The Department of Children and Family Services.

Section 38. For the purpose of incorporating the amendment made by this act to section 400.509, Florida Statutes, in a reference thereto, paragraph (a) of subsection (6) of section 400.506, Florida Statutes, is reenacted to read:

400.506 Licensure of nurse registries; requirements; penalties.-

(6)(a) A nurse registry may refer for contract in private residences registered nurses and licensed practical nurses registered and licensed under part I of chapter 464, certified nursing assistants certified under part II of chapter 464, home health aides who present documented proof of successful completion of the training required by rule of the agency, and companions or homemakers for the purposes of providing those services authorized under s. 400.509(1). A licensed nurse registry shall ensure that each certified nursing assistant referred for contract by the nurse registry and each home health aide referred for contract by the nurse registry is adequately trained to perform the tasks of a home health aide in the home setting. Each person referred by a nurse registry must provide current documentation that he or she is free from communicable diseases.
