Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. This act may be cited as the "Florida Taxpayers Protection Act."

Section 2. Section 198.46, Florida Statutes, is created to read:

198.46 Retaliatory estate, inheritance, or other death taxes.—

(1) For purposes of this section, the term:

(a) "Nonresident" means any person who is not a resident of this state but is a resident of the United States.

(b) "State of domicile" means the state where a person is a resident.

(2) A tax is imposed upon the transfer of property located in this state of every person who at the time of death was a nonresident. The tax is imposed only if the nonresident's state of domicile imposes an estate, inheritance, or other death tax

HB 183

29 upon the transfer of the property of a resident of this state
30 that is located in that state and the amount of tax is in excess
31 of the amount of such taxes that would be imposed by this state
32 on transfers of such nonresident's similar property located in 33 this state.

34 (3) The tax due under this section shall be equal to the 35 tax that a nonresident would have to pay under the laws of his
36 or her state of domicile if he or she were a resident of this
37 state and the nonresident's property located in this state were 38 located in the nonresident's state of domicile and the 39 nonresident's property located in the state of domicile were 40 located in this state.

41 (4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter,
42 the tax imposed by this section is due and payable, and tax
43 returns are due, on or before the last day prescribed by the 44 laws of the nonresident's state of domicile for the payment of 45 tax or the filing of returns.

46 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2011, and 47 shall apply to nonresidents who die after June 30, 2011.
