14 independent judgment, who shall not be employed by, or hold any 15 commission with, any governmental unit in the state or any 16 employee organization, as defined in this part, while in such 17 office. In no event shall more than one appointee be a person 18 who, on account of previous vocation, employment, or 19 affiliation, is, or has been, classified as a representative of 20 employers; and in no event shall more than one such appointee be 21 a person who, on account of previous vocation, employment, or 22 affiliation, is, or has been, classified as a representative of 23 employees or employee organizations. The chair of the commission 24 ~~commissioners~~ shall devote full time to commission duties and 25 shall not engage in any other business, vocation, or employment 26 while in such office. The part-time members shall not engage in 27 any business, vocation, or employment that conflicts with their 28 duties while in such office. Beginning January 1, 1980, the 29 chair shall be appointed for a term of 4 years, one commissioner
30 for a term of 1 year, and one commissioner for a term of 2
31 years. Thereafter, every term of office shall be for 4 years;
32 and each term of the office of chair shall commence on January 1
33 of the second year following each regularly scheduled general
34 election at which a Governor is elected to a full term of 35 office. In the event of a vacancy prior to the expiration of a
36 term of office, an appointment shall be made for the unexpired 37 term of that office. The chair shall be responsible for the 38 administrative functions of the commission and shall have the 39 authority to employ such personnel as may be necessary to carry 40 out the provisions of this part. Once appointed to the office of 41 chair, the chair shall serve as chair for the duration of the 42 term of office of chair. Nothing contained herein prohibits a
