 22 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
 23

24           Section 1. (1) As used in this section, the term "killing 25 of a person" means all acts or events that cause or otherwise
 26 relate to the death of any human being, including any related 27 acts or events immediately preceding or subsequent to the acts
 28 or events that were the proximate cause of death.

29        (2) A photograph or video or audio recording that depicts 30 or records the killing of a person is confidential and exempt
31 from section 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and Section 24(a),
32 Article I of the State Constitution, except that a surviving 33 spouse of the decedent may view and copy any such photograph or 34 video recording or listen to or copy any such audio recording.
35 If there is no surviving spouse, then the surviving parents
36 shall have access to such records. If there is no surviving 37 spouse or parent, then an adult child shall have access to such 38 records.

39        (3) (a) The deceased's surviving relative, with whom 40 authority rests to obtain such records, may designate in writing
41 an agent to obtain such records.

42        (b) A local governmental entity, or a state or federal 43 agency, in furtherance of its official duties, pursuant to a 44 written request, may view or copy a photograph or video 45 recording or may listen to or copy an audio recording of the 46 killing of a person and, unless otherwise required in the 47 performance of their duties, the identity of the deceased shall 48 remain confidential and exempt.

49        (c) The custodian of the record, or his or her designee,
50 may not permit any other person to view or copy such photograph
51 or video recording or listen to or copy such audio recording
52 without a court order.

53        (4) (a) The court, upon a showing of good cause, may issue 54 an order authorizing any person to view or copy a photograph or 55 video recording that depicts or records the killing of a person
56 or to listen to or copy an audio recording that depicts or

57 records the killing of a person and may prescribe any 58 restrictions or stipulations that the court deems appropriate.

59 (b) In determining good cause, the court shall consider:

60 1. Whether such disclosure is necessary for the public
61 evaluation of governmental performance;

62 2. The seriousness of the intrusion into the family's 63 right to privacy and whether such disclosure is the least 64 intrusive means available; and

65 3. The availability of similar information in other public
66 records, regardless of form.

67 (c) In all cases, the viewing, copying, listening to, or 68 other handling of a photograph or video or audio recording that 69 depicts or records the killing of a person must be under the 70 direct supervision of the custodian of the record or his or her 71 designee.

72 (5) A surviving spouse shall be given reasonable notice of 73 a petition filed with the court to view or copy a photograph or
74 video recording that depicts or records the killing of a person
75 or to listen to or copy any such audio recording, a copy of such 76 petition, and reasonable notice of the opportunity to be present
77 and heard at any hearing on the matter. If there is no surviving 78 spouse, then such notice must be given to the parents of the 79 deceased and, if the deceased has no living parent, then to the 80 adult children of the deceased.

81 (6) (a) Any custodian of a photograph or video or audio 82 recording that depicts or records the killing of a person who 83 willfully and knowingly violates this section commits a felony

84 of the third degree, punishable as provided in section 775.082,
85 section 775.083, or section 775.084, Florida Statutes.

86 (b) Any person who willfully and knowingly violates a 87 court order issued pursuant to this section commits a felony of 88 the third degree, punishable as provided in section 775.082,
89 section 775.083, or section 775.084, Florida Statutes.

90 (c) A criminal or administrative proceeding is exempt from 91 this section but, unless otherwise exempted, is subject to all
92 other provisions of chapter 119, Florida Statutes, provided
93 however that this section does not prohibit a court in a 94 criminal or administrative proceeding upon good cause shown from 95 restricting or otherwise controlling the disclosure of a
96 killling, crime scene, or similar photograph or video or audio
97 recordings in the manner prescribed herein.

98 (7) This exemption shall be given retroactive application
99 and shall apply to all photographs or video or audio recordings 100 that depict or record the killing of a person, regardless of 101 whether the killing of the person occurred before, on, or after 102 July 1, 2011. However, nothing herein is intended to, nor may be 103 construed to, overturn or abrogate or alter any existing orders 104 duly entered into by any court of this state, as of the 105 effective date of this act, which restrict or limit access to 106 any photographs or video or audio recordings that depict or 107 record the killing of a person.

108 (8) This section only applies to such photographs and 109 video and audio recordings held by an agency as defined in 110 section 119.011, Florida Statutes.

111 (9) This section is subject to the Open Government Sunset

CS/HB 411

112 Review Act in accordance with section 119.15, Florida Statutes, 113 and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2016, unless reviewed and 114 saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

115 Section 2. The Legislature finds that is a public 116 necessity that photographs and video and audio recordings that 117 depict or record the killing of any person be made confidential
118 and exempt from the requirements of section 119.07(1), Florida
119 Statutes, and Section 24(a) of Article I of the State 120 Constitution. The Legislature finds that photographs or video or 121 audio recordings that depict or record the killing of any person 122 render a visual or aural representation of the deceased in 123 graphic and often disturbing fashion. Such photographs or video 124 or audio recordings provide a view of the deceased in the final 125 moments of life, often bruised, bloodied, broken, with bullet
126 wounds or other wounds, cut open, dismembered, or decapitated.
127 As such, photographs or video or audio recordings that depict or 128 record the killing of any person are highly sensitive
129 representations of the deceased which, if heard, viewed, copied 130 or publicized, could result in trauma, sorrow, humiliation, or 131 emotional injury to the immediate family of the deceased, as 132 well as injury to the memory of the deceased. The Legislature 133 recognizes that the existence of the World Wide Web and the 134 proliferation of personal computers throughout the world
135 encourages and promotes the wide dissemination of such 136 photographs and video and audio recordings 24 hours a day and 137 that widespread unauthorized dissemination of photographs and 138 video and audio recordings would subject the immediate family of 139 the deceased to continuous injury. The Legislature further

140 recognizes that there continue to be other types of available
141 information, such as crime scene reports, which are less 142 intrusive and injurious to the immediate family members of the 143 deceased and which continue to provide for public oversight. The 144 Legislature further finds that the exemption provided in this 145 act should be given retroactive application, except as otherwise
146 provided, because it is remedial in nature.

147 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2011.
