ARTICLE V

JUDICIARY

SECTION 2. Administration; practice and procedure.—

(a) The supreme court shall adopt rules for the practice and procedure in all courts including the time for seeking appellate review, the administrative supervision of all courts,

29 | the transfer to the court having jurisdiction of any proceeding
 30 | when the jurisdiction of another court has been improvidently
 31 | invoked, and a requirement that no cause shall be dismissed
 32 | because an improper remedy has been sought. The supreme court
 33 | shall adopt rules to allow it ~~the court~~ and the district courts
 34 | of appeal to submit questions relating to military law to the 35 | federal Court of Appeals for the Armed Forces for an advisory
 36 | opinion. Rules of court may be repealed by general law that
 37 | expresses the policy behind the repeal ~~enacted by two-thirds~~
 38 | ~~vote of the membership of each house of the legislature. The~~
 39 | court may readopt the repealed rule only in conformity with the 40 | public policy expressed by the legislature. If the legislature
 41 | determines that a rule has been readopted and repeals the 42 | readopted rule, the rule may not be readopted thereafter without
 43 | prior approval of the legislature.

44 | (b) The chief justice of the supreme court shall be chosen
 45 | by a majority of the members of the court; shall be the chief
 46 | administrative officer of the judicial system; and shall have 47 | the power to assign justices or judges, including consenting
 48 | retired justices or judges, to temporary duty in any court for 49 | which the judge is qualified and to delegate to a chief judge of 50 | a judicial circuit the power to assign judges for duty in that 51 | circuit.

52 | (c) A chief judge for each district court of appeal shall
 53 | be chosen by a majority of the judges thereof or, if there is no
 54 | majority, by the chief justice. The chief judge shall be
 55 | responsible for the administrative supervision of the court.

56 (d) A chief judge in each circuit shall be chosen from 57 among the circuit judges as provided by supreme court rule. The 58 chief judge of a circuit shall be responsible for the 59 administrative supervision of the circuit courts and county
60 courts in the ~~his~~ circuit.

61 SECTION 11. Vacancies.—

62 (a) Whenever a vacancy occurs in a judicial office to 63 which election for retention applies, the governor shall fill 64 the vacancy by appointing for a term ending on the first Tuesday 65 after the first Monday in January of the year following the next 66 general election occurring at least one year after the date of 67 appointment, one of not fewer than three persons nor more than 68 six persons nominated by the appropriate judicial nominating 69 commission.

70 (b) The governor shall fill each vacancy on a circuit
71 court or on a county court, wherein the judges are elected by a 72 majority vote of the electors, by appointing for a term ending 73 on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January of the 74 year following the next primary and general election occurring 75 at least one year after the date of appointment, one of not 76 fewer than three persons nor more than six persons nominated by 77 the appropriate judicial nominating commission. An election 78 shall be held to fill that judicial office for the term of the 79 office beginning at the end of the appointed term.

80 (c) The nominations shall be made within thirty days from 81 the occurrence of a vacancy unless the period is extended by the 82 governor for a time not to exceed thirty days. The governor

83 shall make the appointment within sixty days after the 84 nominations have been certified to the governor.

85 (d) Each appointment of a justice of the supreme court is 86 subject to confirmation by the senate. The senate may sit for 87 the purpose of confirmation regardless of whether the house of 88 representatives is in session or not. If the senate fails to 89 vote on the appointment of a justice within 90 days, the justice 90 shall be deemed confirmed. If the senate votes to not confirm 91 the appointment, the supreme court judicial nominating 92 commission shall reconvene as though a new vacancy had occurred 93 but may not renominate any person whose prior appointment to 94 fill the same vacancy was not confirmed by the senate. The 95 appointment of a justice is effective upon confirmation by the 96 senate.

97 (e) ~~(d)~~ There shall be a separate judicial nominating 98 commission as provided by general law for the supreme court, one 99 for each district court of appeal, and one for each judicial 100 circuit for all trial courts within the circuit. Uniform rules 101 of procedure shall be established by the judicial nominating 102 commissions at each level of the court system. Such rules, or 103 any part thereof, may be repealed by general law ~~enacted by a~~
 104 ~~majority vote of the membership of each house of the~~
 105 ~~legislature~~, or by the supreme court, five justices concurring.
 106 Except for deliberations of the judicial nominating commissions, 107 the proceedings of the commissions and their records shall be 108 open to the public.

109 SECTION 12. Discipline; removal and retirement.—

110 (a) JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS COMMISSION.—A judicial 111 qualifications commission is created.

112 (1) There shall be a judicial qualifications commission 113 vested with jurisdiction to investigate and recommend to the 114 Supreme Court of Florida the removal from office of any justice 115 or judge whose conduct, during term of office or otherwise, 116 ~~occurring on or after November 1, 1966, (without regard to the~~ 117 ~~effective date of this section)~~ demonstrates a present unfitness 118 to hold office, and to investigate and recommend the discipline 119 of a justice or judge whose conduct, during term of office or 120 otherwise ~~occurring on or after November 1, 1966 (without regard~~ 121 ~~to the effective date of this section)~~, warrants such 122 discipline. For purposes of this section, discipline is defined 123 as any or all of the following: reprimand, fine, suspension with 124 or without pay, or lawyer discipline. The commission shall have 125 jurisdiction over justices and judges regarding allegations that 126 misconduct occurred before or during service as a justice or 127 judge if a complaint is made no later than one year following 128 service as a justice or judge. The commission shall have 129 jurisdiction regarding allegations of incapacity during service 130 as a justice or judge. The commission shall be composed of:

131 a. Two judges of district courts of appeal selected by the 132 judges of those courts, two circuit judges selected by the 133 judges of the circuit courts and two judges of county courts
 134 selected by the judges of those courts;

135 b. Four electors who reside in the state, who are members 136 of the bar of Florida, and who shall be chosen by the governing 137 body of the bar of Florida; and 138 c. Five electors who reside in the state, who have never 139 held judicial office or been members of the bar of Florida, and 140 who shall be appointed by the governor.

141 (2) The members of the judicial qualifications commission 142 shall serve staggered terms, not to exceed six years, as 143 prescribed by general law. No member of the commission except a 144 judge shall be eligible for state judicial office while acting 145 as a member of the commission and for a period of two years
 146 thereafter. No member of the commission shall hold office in a 147 political party or participate in any campaign for judicial 148 office or hold public office; provided that a judge may campaign 149 for judicial office and hold that office. The commission shall 150 elect one of its members as its chairperson.

151 (3) Members of the judicial qualifications commission not 152 subject to impeachment shall be subject to removal from the 153 commission pursuant to the provisions of Article IV, Section 7, 154 Florida Constitution.

155 (4) The commission shall adopt rules regulating its 156 proceedings, the filling of vacancies by the appointing 157 authorities, the disqualification of members, the rotation of 158 members between the panels, and the temporary replacement of 159 disqualified or incapacitated members. The commission's rules, 160 or any part thereof, may be repealed by general law ~~enacted by a~~ 161 ~~majority vote of the membership of each house of the~~ 162 ~~legislature,~~ or by the supreme court, five justices concurring.
 163 The commission shall have power to issue subpoenas. Until formal 164 charges against a justice or judge are filed by the 165 investigative panel with the clerk of the supreme court of 166 Florida all proceedings by or before the commission shall be 167 confidential; provided, however, upon a finding of probable 168 cause and the filing by the investigative panel with said clerk

 169 of such formal charges against a justice or judge such charges 170 and all further proceedings before the commission shall be 171 public.

172 (5) The commission shall have access to all information
 173 from all executive, legislative and judicial agencies, including 174 grand juries, subject to the rules of the commission. At any 175 time, on request of the speaker of the house of representatives 176 ~~or the governor~~, the commission shall make available to the 177 house of representatives all information in the possession of 178 the commission, which information shall remain confidential 179 during any investigation and until such information is used in 180 the pursuit ~~for use in consideration~~ of impeachment ~~or~~ 181 ~~suspension, respectively.~~

182 (b) PANELS.—The commission shall be divided into an 183 investigative panel and a hearing panel as established by rule 184 of the commission. The investigative panel is vested with the 185 jurisdiction to receive or initiate complaints, conduct 186 investigations, dismiss complaints, and upon a vote of a simple 187 majority of the panel submit formal charges to the hearing 188 panel. The hearing panel is vested with the authority to receive 189 and hear formal charges from the investigative panel and upon a 190 two-thirds vote of the panel recommend to the supreme court the 191 removal of a justice or judge or the involuntary retirement of a 192 justice or judge for any permanent disability that seriously
 193 interferes with the performance of judicial duties. Upon a

194 simple majority vote of the membership of the hearing panel, the 195 panel may recommend to the supreme court that the justice or 196 judge be subject to appropriate discipline.

197 (c) SUPREME COURT.—The supreme court shall receive 198 recommendations from the judicial qualifications commission's 199 hearing panel.

200 (1) The supreme court may accept, reject, or modify in 201 whole or in part the findings, conclusions, and recommendations 202 of the commission and it may order that the justice or judge be 203 subjected to appropriate discipline, or be removed from office 204 with termination of compensation for willful or persistent 205 failure to perform judicial duties or for other conduct 206 unbecoming a member of the judiciary demonstrating a present 207 unfitness to hold office, or be involuntarily retired for any 208 permanent disability that seriously interferes with the 209 performance of judicial duties. Malafides, scienter or moral 210 turpitude on the part of a justice or judge shall not be 211 required for removal from office of a justice or judge whose 212 conduct demonstrates a present unfitness to hold office. After 213 the filing of a formal proceeding and upon request of the 214 investigative panel, the supreme court may suspend the justice
 215 or judge from office, with or without compensation, pending
 216 final determination of the inquiry.

217 (2) The supreme court may award costs to the prevailing 218 party.

219 (d) REMOVAL POWER.—The power of removal conferred by this 220 section shall be both alternative and cumulative to the power of 221 impeachment.

222 (e) PROCEEDINGS INVOLVING SUPREME COURT JUSTICE.—
 223 Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this section, 224 if the person who is the subject of proceedings by the judicial 225 qualifications commission is a justice of the supreme court of 226 Florida all justices of such court automatically shall be 227 disqualified to sit as justices of such court with respect to 228 all proceedings therein concerning such person and the supreme 229 court for such purposes shall be composed of a panel consisting 230 of the seven chief judges of the judicial circuits of the state
 231 of Florida most senior in tenure of judicial office as circuit
 232 judge. For purposes of determining seniority of such circuit 233 judges in the event there be judges of equal tenure in judicial 234 office as circuit judge the judge or judges from the lower 235 numbered circuit or circuits shall be deemed senior. In the 236 event any such chief circuit judge is under investigation by the 237 judicial qualifications commission or is otherwise disqualified 238 or unable to serve on the panel, the next most senior chief 239 circuit judge or judges shall serve in place of such 240 disqualified or disabled chief circuit judge.

241 (f) SCHEDULE TO SECTION 12.—

242 (1) Except to the extent inconsistent with the provisions 243 of this section, all provisions of law and rules of court in 244 force on the effective date of this article shall continue in 245 effect until superseded in the manner authorized by the 246 constitution.

247 (2) After this section becomes effective and until adopted 248 by rule of the commission consistent with it:

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

ARTICLE V, SECTIONS 2, 11, AND 12

STATE COURTS.—Proposing a revision of Article V of the State Constitution relating to the judiciary.

The State Constitution authorizes the Supreme Court to adopt rules for the practice and procedure in all courts. The constitution further provides that a rule of court may be repealed by a general law enacted by a two-thirds vote of the membership of each house of the Legislature. This proposed constitutional revision eliminates the requirement that a general law repealing a court rule pass by a two-thirds vote of each house, thereby providing that the Legislature may repeal a rule of court by a general law approved by a majority vote of each house of the Legislature that expresses the policy behind the repeal. The court could readopt the rule in conformity with the public policy expressed by the Legislature, but if the Legislature determines that a rule has been readopted and repeals the readopted rule, this proposed revision prohibits the court from further readopting the repealed rule without the Legislature's prior approval. Under current law, rules of the judicial nominating commissions and the Judicial Qualifications Commission may be repealed by general law enacted by a majority vote of the membership of each house of the Legislature. Under this proposed revision, a vote to repeal those rules is changed

332 to repeal by general law enacted by a majority vote of the 333 legislators present.

334 Under current law, the Governor appoints a justice of the 335 Supreme Court from a list of nominees provided by a judicial 336 nominating commission, and appointments by the Governor are not 337 subject to confirmation. This revision requires Senate 338 confirmation of a justice of the Supreme Court before the 339 appointee can take office. If the Senate votes not to confirm 340 the appointment, the judicial nominating commission must 341 reconvene and may not renominate any person whose prior 342 appointment to fill the same vacancy was not confirmed by the 343 Senate. For the purpose of confirmation, the Senate may meet at 344 any time. If the Senate fails to vote on the appointment of a 345 justice within 90 days, the justice will be deemed confirmed and 346 will take office.

347 The Judicial Qualifications Commission is an independent 348 commission created by the State Constitution to investigate and 349 prosecute before the Florida Supreme Court alleged misconduct by 350 a justice or judge. Currently under the constitution, commission 351 proceedings are confidential until formal charges are filed by 352 the investigative panel of the commission. Once formal charges 353 are filed, the formal charges and all further proceedings of the 354 commission are public. Currently, the constitution authorizes 355 the House of Representatives to impeach a justice or judge.
356 Further, the Speaker of the House of Representatives may 357 request, and the Judicial Qualifications Commission must make 358 available, all information in the commission's possession for 359 use in deciding whether to impeach a justice or judge. This 360 proposed revision requires the commission to make all of its 361 files available to the Speaker of the House of Representatives 362 but provides that such files would remain confidential during 363 any investigation by the House of Representatives and until such 364 information is used in the pursuit of an impeachment of a 365 justice or judge. This revision also removes the power of the 366 Governor to request files of the Judicial Qualifications

 367 Commission to conform to a prior constitutional change.

368 This revision also makes technical and clarifying additions
 369 and deletions relating to the selection of chief judges of a 370 circuit and relating to the Judicial Qualifications Commission, 371 and makes other nonsubstantive conforming and technical changes 372 in the judicial article of the constitution.

373

 375 placed on the ballot if a court declares the preceding statement 376 defective and the decision of the court is not reversed:

 383 Senate confirmation of an appointment of a Supreme Court
 384 justice; allowing the House of Representatives to review
 385 confidential files of the Judicial Qualifications Commission
 386 under any circumstances; providing that such files shall remain 387 confidential until the House of Representatives initiates

388 | impeachment proceedings; and making other technical, clarifying,
