5 2. An agency that is the custodian of the information 6 specified in subparagraph 1. and that is not the employer of the 7 officer, employee, justice, judge, or other person specified in 8 subparagraph 1. shall maintain the exempt status of that 9 information only if the officer, employee, justice, judge, other 10 person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a 11 written request for maintenance of the exemption to the 12 custodial agency.

13 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 14 necessity that the home addresses, telephone numbers, and

Amendment No.

17 names, home addresses, telephone numbers, and places of 18 employment of the spouses and children of such current or former 19 investigators and inspectors, and the names and locations of 20 schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such 21 current or former investigators and inspectors be made exempt
22 from public record requirements. The Legislature finds that the 23 release of such identifying and location information might place 24 investigators and inspectors of the Department of Business and 25 Professional Regulation and their family members in danger of 26 physical and emotional harm from disgruntled individuals whose
