The Committee on Transportation (Latvala) recommended the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 548 and 549
insert:

Section 11. Subsection (2) of section 316.655, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

316.655 Penalties.—

(2) Drivers convicted of a violation of any offense prohibited by this chapter or any other law of this state regulating motor vehicles, which resulted in an accident, may have their driving privileges revoked or suspended by the court if the court finds such revocation or suspension warranted by

13 the totality of the circumstances resulting in the conviction
14 and the need to provide for the maximum safety for all persons
15 who travel on or who are otherwise affected by the use of the 16 highways of the state. In determining whether suspension or 17 revocation is appropriate, the court shall consider all
18 pertinent factors, including, but not limited to, such factors
19 as the extent and nature of the driver's violation of this
20 chapter, the number of persons killed or injured as the result
21 of the driver's violation of this chapter, and the extent of any 22 property damage resulting from the driver's violation of this 23 chapter.
