27
28 Section 1. Section 322.0805, Florida Statutes, is created
29 to read:

2-00327-12

2012220

322.0805 Florida Driver's License Citizen Protection Act.-

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature to minimize any inconvenience to citizens transacting business with the department while maintaining security for the issuance of driver's licenses and identification cards to citizens and aliens legally residing within the state.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the department may not copy or retain in any form or format any document submitted by a United States citizen as proof of identification, proof of social security number, or proof of residence or any other verification document required or formerly required under this chapter for original issuance, normal renewal, reinstatement, or modification, such as an endorsement or address change, of a driver's license or identification card. Proof of citizenship required for issuance of an original driver's license or identification card may not be copied or retained by the department but shall be noted in the department's records when received and returned. Once established, proof of identity or citizenship may not be required by the department for renewal, reinstatement, or modification of a license or identification card. By September 11, 2012, the department shall securely destroy so as to make irretrievable any such verification documents that have been obtained from United States citizens.

(b) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, if a citizen is currently licensed to drive in this state or holds a valid Florida identification card, the department shall grant a normal renewal, reinstatement, or modification, such as an endorsement or address change, of the license or identification card in the

59 name already existing in the records of the department and the 60 citizen may not be required by the department to provide further 61 proof of identity. The department may not require a citizen who 62 has held a valid Florida driver's license or a valid Florida
63 identification card for at least 10 years to submit proof of his 64 or her residence address for renewal of the license or 65 identification card. In all cases, the department shall 66 primarily use the existing photographs in its records as the 67 best evidence for identification upon renewal or modification of 68 a driver's license or identification card.

69 (3) The department may not use any national or 70 international standard for the photographs required under this 71 chapter and may not incorporate any radio frequency
72 identification device, any device known as a RFID, or any 73 similar electronic tracking device upon or within any driver's 74 license or identification card issued. The department may not 75 obtain any fingerprints or biometric DNA material from a United 76 States citizen for purposes of any issuance, renewal, 77 reinstatement, or modification of a driver's license or 78 identification card.

79 (4) A residential address is not required to be displayed
80 on the driver's license or identification card of any person 81 whose residential address is protected from disclosure by law in 82 s. 119.071(4) (d) or s. 741.403.

83 (5) This section does not prohibit the copying and 84 retention of documents submitted by noncitizens when applying
85 for a driver's license or identification card.

86 Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2012.
