SUMMARY ANALYSIS

In 1969, the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services (department) received legislative authority to construct and equip, in conjunction with the Department of Corrections, an agricultural exposition center in Palm Beach County to be known as the Florida Agricultural Exposition (exposition). The exposition is administered by the department for the purposes of:

- Demonstrating and selling Florida agricultural products.
- Attracting and informing buyers.
- Conducting agricultural short courses and conferences.
- Organizing tours to aid in the marketing of Florida agricultural products to domestic and foreign markets.
- Training prisoners of the correctional institutions of the state in agricultural labor and management.

The exposition is funded through contributions solicited from growers and dealers of agricultural products, the various groups and associations representing agricultural products and agricultural business products, the federal government and other sources. The department is also authorized to expend up to $25,000 of its own funds, if available. According to the department, due to a lack of interest, as well as funding, it is no longer feasible to continue the operation of the exposition.

The bill repeals section 570.071, F.S., which creates and provides for the administration of the Florida Agricultural Exposition. The bill also corrects cross-references to s. 57.071, F.S., in other areas of the statutes.

The bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact on state or local governments.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Present Situation

In 1969, the department received legislative authority to construct and equip, in conjunction with the Department of Corrections, an agricultural exposition center in Palm Beach County to be known as the Florida Agricultural Exposition (exposition). The exposition is administered by the department for the purposes of:

- Demonstrating and selling Florida agricultural products.
- Attracting and informing buyers.
- Conducting agricultural short courses and conferences.
- Organizing tours to aid in the marketing of Florida agricultural products to domestic and foreign markets.
- Training prisoners of the correctional institutions of the state in agricultural labor and management.

The department and the Department of Corrections have statutory authority to receive donations of funds from growers and dealers of agricultural products, the various groups and associations representing agricultural products and agricultural business products, the federal government and other sources. The moneys collected are deposited into the state treasury in a separate trust fund. The department is further authorized to expend up to $25,000 of its own funds, if available. According to the department, due to a lack of interest, as well as funding, it is no longer feasible to continue the operation of the exposition.

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill repeals section 570.071, F.S., which creates and provides for the administration of the Florida Agricultural Exposition. The bill also corrects cross-references to s. 57.071, F.S., in other areas of the statutes.
