3 Amendment (with directory and title amendments)

4 Between lines 172 and 173, insert:

5 (10) For the 2012-2013 school year, any school district
6 that built new facilities in 2010 despite at least 3 prior 7 consecutive years of declining enrollment and a failed
8 referendum for a sales tax increase for the purposes of capital
9 outlay and school construction must submit all necessary
10 documentation to have any operational deficit certified by the 11 Auditor General. Any plan for resolving the deficit must be 12 submitted to the Legislative Budget Commission. Such district
13 may not close schools, effect across-the-board teacher pay
14 reductions, or eliminate art, athletics, music, or other student
15 options such as magnet schools without having first documented
16 that it has accomplished districtwide rezoning and reduced all
