5 Between lines 1665 and 1666, insert:

6 (f) The potential for a low-interest loan program to 7 provide a cost-effective means to encourage the development of 8 demand-side renewable energy systems to achieve the statutory 9 objectives of reducing and controlling the growth rates of 10 electric consumption and reducing the growth rates of weather-11 sensitive peak demand, including an evaluation of similar 12 programs operating both within and outside of the state.
