Senator Bogdanoff moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 83 and 84

insert:

(j) Ordering or requiring a person incorporated or having its principal place of business in this state to act as a collection agent to collect monetary payments from another person, whether or not such person is a resident of this state, unless the parties have otherwise agreed by contract. The courts of this state shall limit the application of, refuse to enforce, or enjoin any such requirements that are inequitable, impracticable, or impossible.
