class of insureds. An insurer that uses a credit report, public record, or other public information to determine whether there is a misstatement or omission in the application for insurance related to the insured's credit history must make such determination within 90 days after the effective date of the policy. After such 90 day period, an insurer may not cancel or rescind the policy or deny coverage for a claim based on a misstatement or omission in the application regarding the insured's credit history which the insurer could have reasonably
